PETITION FOR PEACE:

To the most Reverend Archbishop and Bishops, and the Reverend their Assistants, commissioned by His Majesty, to treat about the Alteration of the Book of Common Prayer.

The humble and earnest Petition of others in the same Commission.

Most Reverend Fathers, and Reverend Brethren.

THe special Providence of God, and his Majestie's tender regard of the Peace and Consciences of His Subjects, and his desire of their concord in the things of God, hath put into our hands this opportunity of speaking to you as humble Petitioners, as well as Commissioners, on the behalf of these yet troubled and unhealed Churches, and of many thousand souls that are dear to Christ; on whose behalf, we are pressed in spirit, in the sense of our duty, most earnestly to beseech you, as you tender the peace and prosperity of these Churches, the comfort of His Majesty in the union of his Subjects, and the peace of your souls in the great day of your accounts, that, laying-by all former and present exasperating and alie-nating differences, you will not now deny us your consent and assistance to those means that shall be proved honest and cheap, and needful, to those great desirable ends, for which we all profess to have our offices, and our lives.

The things which we humbly beg of you, are these.

1. That you will grant what we have here proposed and craved
- B

A Petition for Peace.

of you in our Preface : Even your charitable interpretation, acceptance of, & consent unto the alterations and additions to the Liturgie now tendred unto you; that, being inserted, as we have expressed, it [may be left to the Minister's choice to use one or other at his discretion] upon His Majestie's approbation, according to his gracious Declaration concerning Ecclesiastical Affairs. And that (seeing we cannot obtain the form of Episcopal Government, described by the late Reverend Primate of Ireland, and approved by many Episcopal Divines) we may at least enjoy those benefits of Reformation in Discipline, and that freedom from Subscription, Oaths, and Ceremonies, which are granted in the said Declaration, by the means of your charitable Mediation and Request.

2. Seeing some hundreds of able, holy, faithful Ministers, are of late cast out, and not onely very many of their Families in great distresse, but (which is of far greater moment) abundance of Congregations in England, Ireland, and Wales, are overspread with lamentable ignorance, and are destitute of able, faithful Teachers : And seeing too many that are insufficient, negligent, or scandalous, are over the Flocks (not meaning this as an Accusation of any that are not guilty, nor a dishonourable Reflection on any party, much less on the whole Church) we take this opportunity earnestly to beseech you, that you will contribute your indeavours to the Removal of those that are the shame and burdens of the Churches; and to the Restauration of such as may be an honour and blessing to them. And to that end, that it be not imputed to them, as their unpardonable Crime, that they were born in an Age and Country which required Ordination by Parochial Pastours, without Diocesans: And that Reordination (whether absolute or hypothetical) be not made necessary to the future exercise of their Ministry. But that an universal Confirmation may be granted of those ordained as aforesaid, they being still responsible for any personal insufficiencie or crime. Were these two granted (The Confirmation of the Grants in his Majesties Declaration, with the liberty of the Reformed Liturgie offered you; and the restoring of able, faithful Ministers, to a capacity to be serviceable in the Church of God, without forcing them against their consciences to be Re-ordained) how great would be the benefits to this unworthy Nation? How glad would you make the peoples hearts? how thankful should we be (for the cause of Christ, and the souls of men) to those that grant them, and procure them; being conscious that we seek not great things for our selves, or for our Brethren

Brethren; that we are ambitious of no greater wealth or honour, than our daily bread, with such freedom and advantage for the labours of our Ministry, as may most conduce to the success, the increase of holiness and peace. We shall take the boldness to second these Requests, with many of our Reasons, which we think should prevail for your consent, chusing rather to incur whatsoever censure or offence may by any be taken against our necessary freedom of expression, then to be silent at such a time as this, when thousands of the servants of the Lord, that are either deprived of their faithful Teachers, or in fears of losing them, together with the freedom of their consciences in Gods worship, do cry day and night to Heaven for help, and would cry also in your ears with more importunate Requests, if they had but the opportunity as now we have.

And 1. We beseech you bear with us while we remember you, that you are the Pastors of the flock of Christ, who are bound to feed them, and to preach in season, and out of season, and to be laborious in the Word and Doctrine; but are not bound to hinder all others from this blessed work, that dare not use a Crosse or Surplice, or worship God in a form which they judge disorderly, defective, or corrupt, when they have better to offer him (Mal. i. 13, 14.) Is it not for matter and phrase at least as agreeable to the holy Scripture? If so, we beseech you suffer us to use it, who seek nothing by it, but to worship God as neer as we can, according to his will, who is jealous in the matters of his worship. If indeed yours have more of strength, and ours of weakness, yet, let not Fathers cast the children from the House of God, because they are sick or weak, and need the more compassion; let not our Physicians resolve, their Patients shall all be starved, or cast off, whose temperature and appetites cannot agree to feed on the same dish, with the same preparation and sauce. He that thrice charged Peter as he loved him, to feed his Lambs and Sheep, did never think of charging him to deny them food, or turn them out of his fold, or forbid all others to feed them, unless they could digest such forms and ceremonies, and supercriptions as ours.

2. May we presume to mind you, that the Lord of the Harvest hath commanded us to pray that more Labourers may be sent into the Harvest. (For still proportionably, The Harvest is great, and the Labourers are few, Mat. 9. 37.) And that the Lord hath not furnished them with his gifts in vain, nor lighted these Candles to put under a Bushel, but to be set on a Candlestick, that they may give light to all that are in the house, Mat. 5. 15. And that there are few Nations under the Heavens of God, as far as we can learn, that have more able, holy, faithful, laborious, and truly peaceable Preachers of the Gospel (proportionably) than those are, that are now cast out in England, and are like, in England, Scotland, and Ireland, to be cast out, if the old Conformity be urged: This witness is true, which in Judgement we bear, and must record, against all the reproaches of uncharitableness, which the Justifier of the Righteous at that day will effectually confute. We therefore beseech you, that when thousands of souls are ready to famish for want of the bread of Life, and thousands more are grieved for the Ejection of their faithful Guides, the Labourers may not be kept out, upon the account of such Forms or Ceremonies, or Re-ordination; at least, till you have enow as fit as they to supply their places, and then we shall never petition you for them more.

3. And we beseech you consider, when you should promote the joy and thankfulness of His Majesties Subjects for his happy Restauration, whether it be equal and seasonable to bring upon so many of them so great calamities as the change of able faithful Ministers, for such as they cannot comfortably commit the conduct of their souls to, and the depriving them of the Liberty of the Publick Worship; calamities far greater then the meer losse of all their worldly substance can amount to: In a day of Common Joy, to bring this causelessly on so many of His Majesties Subjects, and to force them to lie down in heart-breaking sorrows, as being almost as far undone, as Man can do it; this is not a due requital of the Lord for so great deliverances: Especially considering, that if it were never so certain, that it is the sin of the Ministers that dare not be Re-ordained, or conform; its hard that so many thousand innocent people should suffer even in their souls for the fault of others.

4. And if we thought it would not be mis-interpreted, we would here remember you, how great and considerable a part of the three Nations they are, that must either incur these sufferings, or condole them that undergo them; and how great a grief it will be to His Majesty, to see his grieved Subjects; and how great a joy it will be to him, to have their hearty thanks and prayers, and see them live in prosperity, peace, and comfort, under His most happy Government.

5. And we may plead the nature of their cause, to move you to

compassionate your poor afflicted Brethren in their sufferings. It is, in your own account, but for refusing Conformity to things indifferent, or, at the most, of no necessity to salvation. It is, in their account, for the sake of Christ: because they dare not consent to that which they judge to be an usurpation of his Kingly power, and an accusation of his Laws as insufficient; and because they dare not be guilty of addition to, or diminution of his Worship, or of worshipping him after any other Law, than that by which they must be judged, or such as is merely subordinate to that. Suppose they be mistaken in thinking the things to be so displeasing to God; yet it is commendable in them to be fearful of displeasing Him, and careful to obey him; a disposition necessary to all that will be saved, and therefore to be loved and cherished in them by the Pastors of the Church; who should be very tender of putting them to suffering, or casting them out of the Church, because they dare not do that which they judge to be so great a sin against the Lord, deserving damnation to themselves. Should not the love of Christ command us to be tender of those, that are so tender of his honour? and to take heed what we do to men for taking heed of sin, and being afraid to offend the Lord? And should not the special love of Christians, and the common love of men, command us, to be loath to drive men by penalties, upon that which they judge doth tend to their everlasting damnation; and which indeed doth tend to it, because they judge it so to do? For he that will do that which he thinks to be so great a sin as is before described, to please men, or to escape their punishment; no doubt deserveth the wrath of God. And should we not be loath to drive men upon sin and condemnation, though we were sure that their own infirmity is the occasion? If it be said, that by this Rule nothing shall be commanded, if men will but scruple it. We answer. Things in themselves necessary, or commanded by God, must be commanded by Man, because Scruples make them not unnecessary, and make not void the Laws of God, and it will be a sin even to the scrupulous to disobey: But things dispensable, and of themselves unnecessary, should not be rigorously urged, upon him to whom they would be a sin, and cause of condemnation. It is in case of things indifferent, in your own judgement, that we now speak. If it be said, that is humour, pride, or singularity, or peevishness, or faction, and not true tenderness of conscience that causeth the doubts, or non-conformity of these men? We answer, Such crimes must be fastened only on the Individuals, that are first proved guilty of them; and not upon multitudes unnamed and unknown and without proof; and you know, it is the prerogative of God to search the heart, and that he hath said, Judge not that ye be not judged: for with what judgement ye judge, ye shall be judged, and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again, Mat. 7. 1. 2 And, Who art thou that judgest another mans servant to his own Master, he standeth or falleth; yea he shall be holden up, for God is able to make him stand, Rom. 14. 4. And who can pretend to be better acquainted with their hearts, than they are themselves! For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of a man, which is in him? 1 Cor. 2. 11. And they are ready to appeal to the dreadful God, the searcher of hearts, and the hater of Hypocrisie, that, if it were not for fear of sinning against him, and wounding their consciences, and hazarding, and hindering their salvation, they would readily obey you in all these things; That it is their fear of sin and damnation that is their Impediment, they are ready to give you all the assurance, that man can give by the solemnest professions; or by oath, if justly called to it.

And one would think that a little Charity might suffice to enable you to believe them, when their non-compliance brings them under suffering; and their compliance, is the visible way to favour, safety, and prosperity in the world. And if men that thus appeal to God concerning the intention of their own hearts, cannot be believed, even when the state of their worldly interest bears witness to their professions, but another shall step into the Throne of the heart-searching God, and say [It is not as they say, or swear, It is not conscience, but obstinacy or singularity] all humane converse upon these terms will be overthrown: And what remedy have they, but patiently to wait, till God that they have Appealed to, shall decide the doubt, and shew who were the Assertours of truth or falsehood?

6. And we crave leave to represent to you the great disproportion, in necessity and worth, between the things in question, and the salvation of so many, as may be obtained by the free and faithful exercise of the Ministry, of those that now are, and that are yet like to be laid aside: Do you think the Lord that died for souls, and hath sent us to learn what that meaneth [I will have mercy and not sacrifice, Mat. 9. 13.] is better pleased with Re-ordination, Subscription, and Ceremonies, than with the saving of souls, by the means of his own appointment? If it be said, that Publick order der and peace and concord do promote the salvation of many, and therefore are to be preferred before the salvation of fewer. We answer, Concord in holy obedience to God doth indeed promote the salvation of all that entertain it; but Concord in Ceremonies, or Re-ordination, or Oaths of obedience to Dioceſans, or in your questioned particular forms of Prayer, do neither in their nature, or by vertue of any promise of God, so much conduce to mens salvation; as the preaching of the Gospel doth, by able, faithful, and laborious Ministers. And how comes it to passe that unity, concord and order, must be placed in those things, which are no way necessary thereto? Will there not be order and concord in Holy obedience and acceptable worshipping of God, on the terms which we now propose and crave, without the foresaid matter of offence? We here shew you that we are no Enemies to order, and our long importunity for the means of concord, doth shew that we are not enemies to concord.

If it be said, that other men that will conform to the things in question may convert and save souls better than those that are factious and disobedient: We first humbly crave, that reproach may not be added to affliction, and that none may be called factious that are not proved such: and that Laws imposing things, indifferent in your judgement, and sinful in theirs, may not be made the rule to judge of Faction: But that men who live inoffensively under civil Government, and, in matters of Faith and Worship, subscribe to all contained in the holy Scriptures; and endeavour to promote Universal Peace and Charity on these terms, may not be made offenders by the making of Laws and Canons, that must force them to be such: Consequently Daniel was an offender that would not forbear praying openly by the space of thirty dayes. But antecedently to that Law, he was confessed just, by them that said [We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we finde it against him concerning the Law of his God] Dan. 6. 5, 7, 10. The Law which he must break, was made to make him a breaker of that Law: take away that Law, and take away his fault. We accuse none of the like intentions: but we must say, that it is easie to make any man an offender, by making Laws which his conscience will not allow him to observe; and its as easie to make that same man cease to seem disobedient, obstinate, or factious, without any change at all in him, by taking down such needlesse Laws. We may again remember you what Christ a second time doth presse, Mat. 12. 7.

[But if ye had known what this meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltlesse.]

And next, to the rest of the objection, we answer; That sad experience tells the world, that if the Ministers that we are pleading for, be laid aside, there are not competent men enow to supply their Rooms, and equally to promote the salvation of the flocks: This is acknowledged by them who still give it as the reason why Ministers are not to be trusted with the expressing of their desires in their own words, nor so much as to chuse which Chapter to read, as well as which Text to preach on, to their Auditours; because we shall have Ministers so weak, as to be unfit for such a trust: And men that are not wise enough for so easie a part of their duty, as to choose fit portions of Scripture to read, are unlikely to afford an equal assistance to the salvation of the people, instead of the labours of such as we are speaking for.

7. And it must be remembred, that in our Ordination, we must professe that [we are perswaded that the Holy Scriptures contain sufficiently all Doctrine, required of necessity for eternal salvation, &c.] and that we will teach or maintain nothing as required of necessity to eternal salvation, but that which we are perswaded may be concluded and proved by the same] and that one of the articles of the Church containeth the same doctrine of the Scripture's sufficiency: and to these we are called to subscribe. And the persons that we now speak for, are ready to subscribe to all contained in the Holy Scriptures, and willing to be obliged by the Laws of men to practise it: And he that hath all things necessary to salvation is received of God, and should therefore be received by the Church, if the Apostles argument be good, Rom. 14. 1, 3. [For God hath received him] Seeing then you do profess that none of your Impositions, that cannot be concluded from the Scripture, are necessary to salvation; let them not consequentially be made necessary to it, and more necessary than that which is ordinarily necessary.

If you say, that so many men shall be forbidden to preach, unlesse they dare Subscribe and use these things; you will tempt them to infer, that Preaching being ordinarily necessary to salvation, Rom. 10. 14. and these things called indifferent being made necessary to preaching and preferred before it, therefore they are made necessary to salvation, and preferred before that which God hath made necessary.

If it be said, that, This will as much follow the making of any other indifferent thing to be necessary to preaching; and so the Church shall make no Orders; We answer

1. That smaller things must not be imposed by unproportionable penalties.

2. That though the Church may prefer a sober, peaceable Preacher before one that is Schismatical and unpeaceable (which is not at all to exclude Preaching); yet the Church may not make any thing necessary to Preaching it self, that is of it self unnecessary, and not antecedently necessary, at least by accident.

8. And if our Religion be laid upon your particular Liturgy, we shall teach the Papists further to insult, by asking us, Where was our Religion two hundred years ago? the Common Prayer-Book as differing from the Mass-Book, being not so old. And that which might then be the matter of a change, is not so unchangeable it self, but that those Alterations may be accepted for ends so desirable as are now before us.

9. And we humbly crave that we may not in this be more rigorously dealt with, than the Pastours and People of the Antient Churches were: If we may not have the liberty of the Primitive times, when, for ought can be proved, no Liturgical Forms were imposed upon any Church: yet at least let us have the liberty of the following Ages; when under the same Prince there were diversity of Liturgies; and particular Pastors, had the power of making and altering them, for their particular Churches.

10. And if you should reject (which God forbid) the moderate Proposals which now and formerly we have made, we humbly crave leave to offer it to your consideration, what judgement all the Protestant Churches are likely to pass on your proceedings, and how your cause and ours will stand represented to them, and to all succeeding Ages. Though we earnestly desire the toleration of those that are tolerable, and the peaceable Liberties of all that agree on the Catholick terms of Primitive Simplicity, in Doctrine, Worship, and Discipline; yet have we our selves so far drawn near you, as that the world will say, You reject those that are for Episcopacy it self, and set forms of Liturgy, and are not so much as charged by you at all, as disagreeing in any point of Faith, if you shall reject us. If after our submission to His Majestie's Declaration, and after our own Proposals of the Primitive Episcopacy, and of such a Liturgy as here we tender, we may not be permitted to exercise our Ministry, or enjoy the Publick Worship of God, the Pens of those learned, moderate Bishops will bear witness against you, that were once employed as the chief Defenders of that cause (we mean such as Reverend Bishop Hall, and Usher) who have published to the World, that much lesse than this might have served to our fraternal Unity and Peace. If you would not grant this Liberty, and Communion to others, with whom Christ will hold Communion in grace and glory; yet it will appear more strange to the World, that you should cast out the Episcopal also, that dare not go beyond the Rule of Holy Scripture, and the example of Primitive Simplicity.

And we doubt not but you know, How new and strange a thing it is that you require in the point of Re ordination: When a Canon amongst those called the Apostles deposeth those that Re-ordain, and that are re-ordained; And when it is a thing that both Papists and Protestants condemn, when not only the former Bishops of England, that were more moderate were against it, but even the most fervent adversaries of the Presbyterian way; such as Bishop Bancroft himself, How strange must it needs seem to the Reformed Churches, to the whole Christian world, and to future Generations, that so many able, faithful Ministers should be laid by as broken Vessels, because they dare not be re-ordained? and that so many have been put upon so new and so generally dis-relished a thing?

11. And we crave leave to remember you, that the Ho'y Ghost hath commanded you to over-see the flock, not by constraint, but willingly; not as being Lords over Gods Heritage, but as Ensamples to the Flock: And that it is not only more comfortable to your selves to be beloved as the Fathers, than to be esteemed the Afflictors of the Church; but that it is needful to the ends of your Ministry for the people: When you are loved, your Doctrine will more easily be received: But when men think that their souls or liberties are endangered by you, its easie to judge how much they are like to profit by you.

12. And you know if we are not in point of Ceremonies or Forms in every thing of your mind; it is no more strange to have variety of intellectual Apprehensions in the same Kingdom & Church, than variety of temperatures and degrees of age and strength. If His Majesty should expel all those from his Dominions, that are not so wise, as solidly to judge, whether the Liturgy as before, or as thus reformed, be the best, yea whether this be inteeleable in comparicomparison of yours, and whether God be pleased or displeased with your Ceremonies; it would be too great a diminution of his subjects: And if you should turn all such out of the Kingdom of Christ, it would be liker a dissipating, than a gathering, and a destroying, than an edifying of his Church: And you have not your power to destruction, but to edification, 2 Cor. 10. 8. and 13. 10. you must do all things for the peoples edifying, 2 Cor. 12. 19. Ephes. 4. 12.

13. And how Christ will take it of you, to cast out from the Ministry or Communion of the Church, or to grieve and punish all those that dare not conform to you in these matters; for fear of displeasing the Law-giver of the Church, we beseech you judge (when your souls are most seriously thinking of the day of your Accounts) by such passages of Holy Scripture as may fully acquaint you with his mind. He is himself a merciful High-Priest, a gracious Saviour, a tender Governour. He despiseth not the day of small things, Zech. 4. 10. He feedeth his flock like a Shepherd, he gathereth his Lambs with his Arm, and carrieth them in his bosom, and gently leadeth those that are with young, Isa. 40. 11. A bruised reed will be not break, and the smoking flax will be not quench, Isa. 42. 3. Matth. 12. 20. God doth instruct the Plow-man to discretion, and teacheth him not to thresh the Fetches with a Threshing-instrument, nor to turn the Cart-wheel upon the Cummin; but the Fetches are beaten out with a staff, and the Cummin with a rod, Isa. 28. 26. Gods servants are his Jewels, Mal. 3. 17. He will spare them as a man spareth his son that serveth him, and he that toucheth them, toucheth the apple of his eye, Zech. 2. 8. Remember the near relation they stand in to God in Christ, that they are the children of God; co-heirs with Christ, Rom. 8. 17. The members of his body, his flesh and bone, which he cannot hate, whoever hateth them, Ephes. 5. 29, 30. Remember how dear they cost him, and to what honour he will advance them; and that these same persons that love him in sincerity, must be where he is, to behold his glory, Joh. 12. 26. & 17. 24. and shall be like the Angels of God, Luk. 20. 36 and shall judge the world, 1 Cor. 6. 2, 3. and that Christ will come to be glorified and admired in them, 2 Thes. 1. 10. and they shall shine forth as the Sun in the Kingdom of their Father, Mat. 13. 43. Remember with what tender usage he treated his weak imperfect members upon earth; and when he was ascending to prepare a place for them; that they might be with him where he is, how affectionately tionately he bespeaketh them, Job. 20. 17. Go to my Brethren, and say unto them, I ascend up to my Father, and your Father, and to my God, and your God. And lest you should say, that he will not own those little ones, that (whether for Truth's sake, or their infirmities) do bear disgraceful titles in the world; Remember that at the day of Judgement he will say, Inasmuch as you did it not, or did it, to one of the least of these my Brethren, you did it not, or did it, unto me. Mat. 25. 40, 45. If his Elect cry to him day and night, though he bear long, he will avenge them, and that speedily, Luke 18. 7, 8. Bear with us while we add this terrible passage, which we once before made mention of, Mat. 18. 5, 6. [Who so shall receive one such little child in my name, receiveth me; but who so shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it were better for him that a Millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the Sea.] Undoubtedly if you consider duly by such passages, how Christ will take it, to have his servants not only not visited, not-relieved; but to be afflicted, not only in body, but in soul, with that great affliction to be cast out of the Ministry, or Church, for unavoidable dissent in things indifferent, you will never joyn with those that shall stretch forth a hand against them for such a cause as this. If yet the old Pretence be made, that they suffer as Schismatics, and Disobedient; we must say again, If any shall make men disobedient by imposing things unnecessary, which they know are by learned, pious, peaceable men, esteemed sins against the Lord; and then shall thus heavily afflict them for their disobedience, which they may easily cure by the forbearance of those impositions; let not our souls come into their secret, nor our honour be united to their Assembly: If they shall smite or cast out a supposed Schismatick, and Christ shall find an able, holy, peaceable Minister, or other Christian, wounded, or mourning, out of doors, let us not be found among the Actors, nor stand among them in the day of their Accounts, when tribulation shall be recompensed to the Troublers of Believers, 2 Thes. 1. 6.

14. We beseech you also consider, that men have not their understandings at their own command; much lesse can they be commanded by others: if they were never so willing to believe all that is imposed on them to be lawful, they cannot therefore believe it, because they would, the intellect being not free. And to dissemble, and say, and swear, and do, the things which they believe not; is such an aggravated hypocrisie (being in the matters of God, and joyned.

joyned with perfidiousness) as we may suppose cannot render them acceptable to any, that have not renounced Religion and Humanity, much lesse should they be constrained to it. And when it is known that mens judgements are against the things imposed, and that penalties are no means adapted to the informing and changing of the judgement, but to force men to do the things they know; we conceive they should not be used, and souled in the case of things indifferent, where they are not necessary to the common good, and where the sufferers have never had sufficient means to change their judgements.

If it be said, that, It is their own fault, that their judgements are not changed; and that, the means have been sufficient.

We answer, That it is their fault, is the point in question; which the Sword can easilier take for granted, than the Tongue or Pen can prove: But if it be so; it is their fault, as it is that they are the Sons of Adam, partakers of the common corruption of humane nature; and as it is their fault, that they are not all of the highest form in the School of Christ, above the common ignorance and frailties of believers, and that they are not all the most judicious Divines of the most subtil wits, and had not the same education and society to advance your opinions, and represent things to their understandings, just as they are represented unto yours. And if men must be cast out of the Church, or Ministry, because they are not wiser than such learned men, as the Pastors of the most of the Reformed Churches, and as Hilderham, Bayne, Parker, Ames, Dod, Ball, Nichols, and many such others, as have here taken this conformity to be a sin; how few, alas, how very few will there be left?

And if it be said; That men do willingly keep out the light. We must say; That few men are obstinate against the opinions that tend to their ease and advancement in the world, and to save them from being vilified as Schismaticks, and undone; and when men profess before the Lord, that they do impartially study & pray for knowledge, and would gladly know the will of God at the dearest rate; we must again say, that those men must prove that they know the dissentors hearts, better than they are known to themselves, that expect to be believed by charitable Christians, when they charge them with wilful ignorance, or obstinate resisting of the truth.

15. And we crave leave to ask, Whether you do not your selves in some things mistake, or may not do so for ought you know? and whether your understandings are not still imperfect? and all men differ not in some opinions or other? And if you may mistake in any thing, may it not be in as great things as these? Can it be expected that we should all be past erring about the smallest Ceremonie and Circumstances of worship? And then should not the conscientiousness of your own infirmity, provoke you rather to compassionate humane frailty, than to cast out your Brethren, for as small failings as your own?

16. And we further offer to your consideration, Whether this be doing as you would be done by: Would you be cast out for every fault that is as bad as this? and doth this shew that you love your neighbours as your selves? Put your selves in their case, and suppose that you had studied, conferred and prayed, and done your best to know whether God would have you to be Re-ordained, to use these Forms or Ceremonies, or Subscriptions, or not? and having done all, you think that God would be displeased if you should use them; Would you then be used your selves, as your dissenting Brethren are now used, or like to be? Love them as your selves, and we will crave no further favour for them.

17. But nothing more affecteth us, than to think of the Lamentable divisions, that have been caused, and are still like to be, whilst things unnecessary are so imposed: and on the contrary, how blessed an unity and peace we might enjoy, if these occasions of division were removed, and we might but have leave to serve God as his Apostles did. As in Doctrinals, ten thousand will sooner agree in an Explicite belief of the Creed, than an hundred in an Explicite belief of all that Ockam or Scott have determined; So in the matters of Government and Worship; It is easier to agree upon few things, than upon many; upon great and certain and necessary things, than upon small, uncertain, and unnecessary things; and upon things that God himself hath revealed or appointed, than upon things that proceed from no surer an Original, than the will of man. The strict prohibition of adding to, or diminishing from the things commanded by the Law-giver of the Church, Deut. 12. 32. doth put such a fear in the minds of multitudes of the loyal subjects of Christ, lest by such additions or diminutions in the matters of his worship, they should provoke him to displeasure, as will be a certain perpetual hinderance to any common Unity or Concord, in such humane impositions, of which many of the servants of the jealous God will have a continual jealousy.

With grieved hearts we now renew the lamentable divisions, occasioned already by these Impositions, ever since the Reformation in the days of King Edward the 6th, and the grievous fruits of those Divisions? How they destroyed Charity (the character of Christs Disciples) and exasperated mens minds against each other: How they corrupted mens prayers, and other exercises of devotion, and made them pray and preach against one another: How their tongues were emboldned to the censuring of each other, one party calling the other Factious, Schismatical, Singular, and Disobedient; and the other calling them Antichristian, Proud, Tyrannical, Superstitious, Persecutors, and Formalists: And such language still increasing the uncharitableness and divisions; till the increase of imposing rigour on the one side, and of impatience under sufferings on the other side, was too great a preparation to those greater calamities which are yet bitter to the remembrance of all whose interests or passions have not conquered their humanity. And the continuance of so much of the causes and effects, doth infallibly prove, that if the same Impositions be seetled upon us, the same Heart-divisions will be still continued: Brethren will disdain the name and love of Brethren to each other; which yet Christ himself by condescending and reproving love, vouchsafeth to them all. Instead of loving one another with a pure heart, fervently, there will be, if not hating, yet grudging at one another, censuring and despising one another; Which effects will still increase their cause, and make one side think, that they are necessitated to be more rigorous in their Coercions, and the other think that they are allowed to be more censorious against those by whom they suffer.

And how many thousands on both sides by such a stream of temptations, will undoubtedly be carried on in a course of Sin from day to day, and by Heart-sin, and Tongue-sin, by Pulpit-sins, or sins in other parts of Worship, will dishonour God and provoke him to his signation against them and the Land, we may not without astonishment and grief of heart, foresee, or foretell.

And its easie to foresee how the innocent will be numbred with the faulty, and those that do but feel their sufferings, and the suffering of the Church on these occasions, and do but groan and sigh to God, and pray for succour and deliverance, will be thought to be guilty of discontent and faction, and bringing the Government of the Church, and consequently of the Kingdom into hatred or dislike, and so their sufferings will be increased: And he that is commanded by the Laws of humanity, to be compassionately sensible sensible of the Calamities of others, shall be thought an offender for being sensible of his own. It is easie to foresee, how those expressions in mens Sermons, or Prayers, or familiar Conference, which seem to any mis-understanding, or suspicious, or malicious Hearers, to intimate any sense of sufferings, will be carried to the ears of Rulers, and represented as a Crime? And nature having planted in all men an unwillingness to suffer, and denied to all men a love of calamity, and necessitated men to feel when they are hurt, and made the Tongue and Countenance the Index of our sense; these Effects will be unavoidable, while such Impositions are continued, and while a fear of sinning will not suffer men to swallow and digest them; and what wrong such divisions about Religion will be to the Kingdom, and to His Majesty, we shall not mention, because our Governours themselves may better understand it.

On the other side, What universall ease, and peace, and joy would be the fruits of that happy unity and concord, which the reasonable forbearances, which we humbly petition for, would certainly produce? how comfortable would our Ministerial labours be, when we had no such temptations, burdens, or disquietments? when we lay not under the Reproofs of Conscience, nor the suspicions, or displeasure of our Superiours, but might serve the Lord without distraction, and be among his servants without such fears, (Phil. 1. 14. 1 Cor. 16. 10.)? How much would the hands of the Builders be strengthened for the work of God, when they speak the same things, and there are no divisions among them, but they are perfectly joyned together in the same mind and judgement, 1 Cor. 1. 10. when they are like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind, doing nothing through strife or vain glory? which will never be while the one calls the other factious and schismatical, and the other calleth him superstitious and tyrannical; but when Christ hath taught us in lowliness of mind to esteem others better than our selves, and not to look every man on his own things (his own gifts, and virtues, and worth, and interest) but every man also on the things of others: and till the same mind be in us, that was in Christ Jesus, that humbled himself, and took upon him the form of a servant, and made himself of no Reputation, Phil. 2: 2, to 9. How much should we honour the Body, the Spirit, the Hope, the Lord, the Faith, the Baptism, the God and Father of all Believers, which are one, if we were one amongst ourselves? which will never be, till with lowliness, and meekness, and long-suffering, we forbear one another in love, instead of hating, reviling and persecuting one another; and till we endeavour to keep the unity of the Spirit (though given in various degrees) rather than an unity in unnecessary things) in the bond of peace, Ephes. 4. 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, and till the well-jointed and compacted body do edify it self in love, by a due contribution of mutuall supply, and grow in Christ the proper head, instead of contending with it self, and dis-jointing and tearing it self into pieces, because of our different measure of understanding, and our unavoidable differences about some small unnecessary things, vers. 13, 14, 15, 16. How beautifull would our holy Assemblies be, and how delightfull the worship of God there celebrated, if we had all laid by the unchristian spirit of hatred, envy, emulation, murmuring, wrath, variance, strife, heresies, seditions, and all uncharitableness, and with one mind, and one mouth did glorify God (Gal. 5. 19, 20, 21. Rom. 15. 16.) : which will never be done, till those that are strong do bear the infirmities of the weak, and please not themselves, but every one of us please his neighbour, for his good to edification, instead of vilifying him, or undoing him; and till, instead of casting each others out of the Church or Ministry, on the account of things indifferent, we receive one another, as Christ received us to the glory of God, Rom. 15. 1, 2, 6, 7. And till we are thus like-minded one towards another, according to Christ Jesus, vers. 5. Instead of being selfishly minded as men, or maliciously as enemies (1 Cor. 3. 3. 1 Cor. 14. 20. Col. 3. 8, Tit. 3. 3.) If the very Babes were fed with the sincere Milk of the Word, and all malice, and guile, and hypocrisy, and envies, and evil-speaking were laid aside, it would prove the best way to their growth, and a surer way to your present and eternal peace, then casting them out because they cannot bear your burdens, or digest some unnecessary things, 1 Pet. 2. 1, 2, 3. How good and how happy a thing would it be for Brethren to dwell together in unity? (Psal. 133. 1.) And as those that by one Spirit are baptized into one body, and know they have need of one another, to contribute honour to the parts that lack it; yea to bestow more abundant honour upon those members which we think to be less honorable, and more abundant comeliness on the uncomely parts, as knowing those members are necessary that seem to be more feeble. If indeed we would have no Schism in the body, the natural way is, for the members to have the same care one for another, as suffering all with one that suffereth, and rejoycing all with one that's honored,

1 Cor. 12. 12, 13, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26. Take their sufferings as your own, and you will not be hasty to bring them unto suffering. It must be the Primitive Simplicity of Faith, Worship, and Discipline, that must restore the Primitive Charity, Unity, and Peace, and make the multitude of Believers to be of one heart, and of one soul, and to converse with gladness and singleness of heart, as having all things common, Acts. 4. 32. & 2. 46. No such things as our controverted impositions, were then made necessary to the unity and concord of the members of the Church.

18. And we humbly offer to your consideration, which way will most gratify Satan in his cause and servants, and which will most promote the work and interest of Jesus Christ. The ungodly that have an imbred enmity to holiness, and to the holy seed, will be glad to see so many of them suffer, and glad, under the shelter of your displeasure and afflictions, to find opportunity to reproach them, and add affliction to affliction. The common adversaries of our Religion, and of the King and Kingdom will rejoice to see us weakened by our Divisions, and employed in afflicting or censuring one another, and to see so many able Ministers laid aside, that might do much displeasure to Satan, by the weakening of his Kingdom, and by promoting the Gospel and Kingdom of the Lord. And whether this will tend to the edification of the Saints, and the pleasing of Christ, we have inquired before.

19. And if what you stand for, be indeed of God, this course of unmercifull imposition, is the greatest wrong to it, that you can easily be drawn to, unawares; while so many truly fearing God, are cast or trodden down, and tempted to think ill of that which themselves and the Church thus suffer by; and when so many of the worst befriend this way because it gratifieth them, it tendeth to make your Cause judged of, according to the quality of its friends and adversaries. And how great a hand this very thing hath had already in the dislike of that is befallen Diocessans, Ceremonies, and the Liturgie, is a thing too generally known to need proof.

20. Lastly, we repeat what formerly we have said, that the Holy Ghost hath already so plainly decided the point in controversy, in the instance of meats and daies, Rom. 14. 15. that it seemeth strange to us that yet it should remain a Controversy. A weak Brother that maketh an unnecessary difference of meats and daies, is not to be cast out, but so to be received, and not to be troubled with such doubtfull disputations; Despising and judging the servants of the Lord, whom he receiveth and can make to stand, and that upon such small occasion, is unbecoming true Believers, vers. 1. 2, 3, 4, 5. All should be here left to the full perswasion of their own mind, vers. 5. Both parties here acknowledge the sovereignty of Christ, and, in observing, or not observing such things, they do it all to him, vers. 6. 7, 8, 9. His judgment should affright us from despising or judging one another, vers. 10. 11, 12. Instead of judging others we should judg it our duty, that none of us put a stumbling block, or occasion to fall in his Brothers way; vers. 13. If we grieve those that esteem that unclean which we do not, we walk not charitably; destroy not the work of God, nor him for whom Christ died, by your indifferent things, vers. 14. 15, 20. It is evil to him that judgeth it to be evil, vers. 14. 20. Do you believe these things to be indifferent, have this belief to your self before God, and condemn not yourselves in that which you allow, vers. 22. Your Brother is damned if he practise doubtingly, for whatsoever is not of Faith, is sin, vers. 23. and you drive him upon damnation! We may well conclude then, that it is good, even your selves to avoid such things unnecessary, by which your Brother stumbleth, is offended, or made weak, vers. 21. Much more to forbear the forcing them upon him, which those that the Apostle reproveth did not attempt. It is the Kingdom of God that we must all promote; and that Kingdom consisteth not in meat or drink, but in righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost. And he that in these things serveth Christ is acceptable to God, and should be approved of men, vers. 17. 18. Let us therefore follow after the things, which make for peace, and things wherewith one may Edify another, vers. 19.

If you say, Rulers imposition maketh indifferent things cease to be indifferent? We answer.

1. They are not indifferent, in the judgment of dissenters, though they be so in yours.

2. Paul was a Ruler of the Church himself, and yet would deny his own Liberty, rather then offend the weak, so far was he from taking away the Liberty of others, 1 Cor. 8. 13. And it is to the Church of Rome and Corinth, and so to the Pastours as well as the rest, that Paul thus writeth: We beseech you therefore plead not Law against us, when our request is that you will joyn with us in Petitioning, to his Majesty, and the Parliament, that there may be no such Law.

The Apostles and Elders Act. 15. 28. declare unto the Churches, that it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and them, to lay upon them, no greater burden, than necessary things; imposing them because antecedently necessary (for that is given as the reason of their selection and imposition) and not only making unnecessary things, necessary, by imposition, for then the imposition had been unnecessary, though it was not a simple, unchangeable necessity, yet it was a necessity by accident, pro tempore & loco, antecedent to the imposition of that Assembly. Seeing then such things commend us not to God; and if you use them, at least, you are not the better; Sin not against Christ, by sinning against your Brethren, 1 Cor. 8. 8, 9, 11, 12. Much more take heed of forcing them to sin.

We have presumed to be thus plain and large, in shewing you some of our Reasons, for your consent, to the necessary abatement, of things unnecessary to the Consciences of your Brethren.

In the conclusion, we beseech you to compare with these the Reasons, that can move you to deny us these requests. If you will needs use such things your selves, will it gain you so much to force them upon others, as will answer all the foresaid Inconveniencies? Will it cost you as dear to grant this Liberty, or abate these things, as the Imposition will cost your Brethren and you? O how easily, how safely, how cheaply, yes, with what commodity and delight, may yett now make this Nation happy, in granting your Brethren these requests?

If you say that others will be still unsatisfied, and you shall never know when you have done: We answer,

1. The cause of the Non-conformists hath been long ago stated, at the troubles of Frankford, and have continued stil the same; you have no reason to suspect them of any considerable change.

2. Grant us but the freedom that Christ and his Apostles left unto the Churches; use necessary things as necessary, and unnecessary things as unnecessary, and charitably bear with the infirmities of the weak, and tolerate the tolerable, while they live peaceably, and then you will know when you have done. And for the intolerable, we beg not your Toleration: We intercede for those that have Christ for their Intercessor in the Highest: We know when all's done, there will be Heresies. 1 Cor. 11. 19. There will be self-lovers, covetous boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to Parents, without faith, without pure will, offenders, uncease-breakers, false accusers, malicious, fierce, & fierce of those that are good.

11. 27. 28,

traytors, beady, bigb-minded, lovers of pleasures more than of God, having a form of godliness, while they deny the power; 2 Tim. 3. 2, 3, 4. There will be filthy dreamers, that defile the Flesh, despise Dominion, speak evil of dignities, Jud. 8. And many will follow their pernicious ways, by reason of whom the way of truth will be evil spoken of, 2 Pet. 2. 2. It is not these for whom we are Petitioners: But for those that are faithfull to God and the King, that fear offending, that agree with you in all things necessary to Salvation, and the common union of Believers, and that you are like to see at Christs right hand, who will finally justify them, and take them to his glory. If you suppose us in all this to have Pleaded our own cause; We hope we are not such as are intolerable in the Ministry or communion of the Church: if you suppose us to Plead the cause of others, we hope you will accept of our desires as impartial, when it is supposed the persons differ from us as well as from you. We have now faithfully, and not unnecessarily, or unreasonably, spread before you the Case of thousands of the upright of the Land: We have proposed honest and safe remedies for our present distractions, and the preventing of the feared increase. We humbly beg your Favourable Interpretation of our plain and earnest language, which the urgency of the Cause commands, and your consent to these our necessary requests: which if you grant us, you will engage us to thankfulness to God and you; and to imploy our faculties and interests with Alacrity to assist you for the common peace. But if you reject our suite (which God forbid) We shall commit all to Him that judgeth Righteously, and wait in hope for the blessed day of Universall Judgment, when the Lord of Hosts their strong redeemer shall thoroughly plead his peoples cause, and execute Judgment for them, and bring them forth into the Light, and they shall behold his Righteousness. In the meane time, we will bear the indignation of the Lord, because we have sinned against him. Come Lord Jesus! Come quickly; Amen.

LITURGY.

Presented to the Right Reverend Bishops, by the Divines appointed by His Majesties Commission to treat with them about the Alteration of it.

Right Reverend,
HAVING already given you our judgment of several things in the Book of Common-Prayer, and our desires for the altering of some parts of it, leaving the rest unaltered; We here tender you some of the said Alterations, which in our former Paper we shewed to be need-full; and some Additional Forms in Scripture Phrase (as neer as we well could) suited to the nature of the several parts of Worship. The Texts are cited in the Margin, to justify partly the Matter, and partly the Phrase. If any be mis-applied (which we hope will not be found) we shall be willing, upon Information, to retract such mis-application. If some of the Prayers here offered seem of too great a length, the substance of them being allowed, we shall upon conference and mutual consideration, sideration, endeavour to contract them: And whereas his Majesty's Commission doth impower and authorize us: To take into our Consideration the severall Directions, Rules, and Forms of Prayer, and things contained in the Book of Common-Prayer; and further addeth, When we shall have drawn our Consultations to any Resolution and Determination, which we shall agree upon as needfull or expedient to be done for the altering, diminishing, or enlarging the Book of Common Prayer, or any part thereof, &c. We have here accordingly added some Rules or Directions as requisite to give light to the whole, shewing when and how those severall Prayers shall be used. But if any of those Rules or Directions upon debate shall be judged by the Commissioners unnecessary, or over-long, we shall be very ready to submit either to the Alteration or Omission of them. And since we for our parts do so freely profess not to insist on any thing now or formerly proposed, which shall be manifested to be unmeet; so we humbly crave, and hope for your consent to all the rest; And that these Alterations and Additions now offered, may find your favourable interpretation and acceptance, and may by our joynt-consent be presented to His Majesty, to the end they may obtain his gracious Approbation; And the severall particulars thereof may be inserted into the severall respective places of the Liturgy, to which they do belong, and left to the Minister's choice to use the one or the other, according to his Majesty's gracious Declaration concerning ECCLESIASTICAL AFFAIRS.

Ordinary Publick-Worship
ON THE LORDS-DAY.

The Congregation being reverently composed, let the Minister first crave God's assistance and acceptance of the Worship, to be performed in these or the like words, *

Fernall, Incomprehensible, and Invisible GOD, infinite in Power, Wisdom, and Goodness, dwelling in the Light which no man can approach, where thousand thousands minister unto Thee, and ten thousand times ten thousand stand before Thee; yet dwelling with the humble and contrite, and taking pleasure in thy People: Thou hast consecrated for us a new and living way; that with boldness we may enter into the holiest, by the blood of Jesus, and hast bid us seek Thee, while thou mayest be found; We come to thee at thy Call, and worship at thy foot-stool Behold us in thy tender Mercies. Despise us not, though unworthy. Thou art greatly to be feared in the Assembly of the Saints, and to be had in Reberence of all that are about thee. Put thy fear into our hearts, that with Reberence we may serve Thee; sanctify us, that thou mayest be glorified of us, when we draw nigh Thee. Give us the Spirit of Grace and Supplication, to help our infirmities, that our prayers may be faithful, fervent, and effectual. Let the desire of our souls be to Thee. Let us draw neer Thee with our hearts, and not only with our lips; and worship thee, who art a Spirit, in Spirit and Truth. Let thy Word be spoken and heard by us as the Word of God: Give us attentive, hearing Cars, and opened believing, understanding, Hearts, that we may no more refuse thy Call, nor disregard thy mercifull out-stretched-hand, nor slight thy Counsels and Reproofs; but be more ready to hear, than to give the sacrifice

We are sinfull and unworthy dust, but being invited by Thee, are bold, through our blessed Mediator, to present our selves and our supplications before Thee. God spake these Words, and said, &c.

For the right informing and affecting the People, and moving them to a penitent believing Confession, some of these Sentences may be read.

God created man in his Image. Gen. 1. 27.

By one man, sin entred into the World, and death by sin : and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned. Rom. 5. 12.

For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God. Rom. 3. 23.

God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him, should not perish, but have everlasting life. John 3. 16.

He that believeth on him shall not be condemned, but he that believeth not, is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. 18.

And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. 19.

For every one that doth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reprov'd. 20.

Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the Law, being made a curse for us. Gal. 3. 13.

Except a man be born of water and of the spirit, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God. John 3. 5.

That which is born of the Flesh is Flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is Spirit. 6.

Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little Children, ye shall not enter into the Kingdom of Heaven. Mat. 18. 3.

Say unto them, As I live saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from his way and live; Turn ye, turn ye from your evil waies; for why will ye dye o house of Israel ? Ezek. 33. 11.

I say unto you, There is joy in the presence of the Angels of God, over a sinner that repenteth. Luke 15. 10.

I will arise, and go to my Father, and say unto him, Father, I have sinned against Heaven and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy Son. 18, 19.

diligence making sure our Calling and Election. We have not with due holiness and reverence drawn near Thee, and used thy holy Name, thy worship, and thy Day: We have dishonoured and disobeyed our Superiours, and neglected our Inferiours. We have been guilty of not loving our Neighbours as our selves, and not doing to others as we would they should do to us, but have sought our own against their welfare, not forbearing & forgiving, not loving our enemies, as we ought, nor following peace, nor studying to do good to all according to our power. We have sinned secretly and openly, in thought, word, and deed, ignorantly and presumptuously, in passion, and upon deliberation, against thy Precepts, Promises, and Threats; against thy mercies and thy judgments, under thy patience, and in thy sight, against our consciences, our purposes, and our covenants; when we were hastening to death and judgment, for which, through all our lives we should have prepared. Thou hast commended thy wonderfull love towards us, in giving thy Son to dye for sinners, to reconcile us to Thee while we were enemies; and all things being made ready, thou hast sent thy messengers to invite us to come in, preaching to us the glad tidings of Salvation, and freely offering us pardon and life in Jesus Christ, but we have made light of it, and neglected this great Salvation, and made excuses of too long delays; undervaluing our Redeemer, his blood and merits his offered grace and endless glory, rejecting his holy Doctrine and Example, resisting his Spirit, & ministers, and Word. We have sinned, O Lord, against Thee, and against our own souls, and are not worthy to be called thy children: We have deserved everlasting wrath; to us belongeth confession, but mercy and forgiveness to Thee. Have mercy upon us, O God, according to the multitude of thy Mercies. Heal our souls that have sinned against Thee, & enter not into judgment with thy servants. Hide thy face from our sins, and blot out all our iniquities. Cast us not away from thy presence, and abridge not upon us the quarter of thy Covenant. Wash us in the blood of the Lamb of God, who taketh away the sins of the World. Accept us in thy Beloved Son, who was made a curse for us, and was wounded for our transgressions, that we might be healed by his stripes. Turn us, O God of our salvation, and cause thy face to shine upon us. Give us Repentance unto life: cause us to love our selves for all the evils that we have committed. Give us that broken constitute Spirit which thou wilt not despise. Create in us a clean heart O God, and renew a right spirit within us. Take out of us the old and strong heart, and give us a new and tender heart. Give us the Spirit of thy Son, and be our God, and let us be thy people. Enlighten our understandings, to know the wonderful things of thy Law, the dimensions of thy love in Christ, the mysteries of thy Kingdome, and the riches of the glory of thy Inheritance in the Saints, and that we may approve the things that are excellent, and may escape the snares of the Devil, and may hate every false way. Shed abroad thy love in our hearts by thy holy Spirit, and cause us so to love Thee, that nothing may separate us from thy love. Put thy fear into our hearts, that we may never depart from Thee. Cause us to seek first thy Kingdom, and its Righteousnesse, and (as those that are risen with Christ) to seek the things that are above, and to lay up a treasure in Heaven, and let our hearts and conversations be there; mortifie our carnall inclinations and desires. Crucifie the world to us, and us unto the world by the Crosse of Christ, Cause us to live by Faith and look at the things that are unseen; and use the world, as not over-using it, seeing the fashion of it passeth away; striving to enter in at the strait gate, and running so as to obtain; let us no longer live the rest of our time to the lusts of men, but to the will of God, studying in all things to please Thee, and to be accepted of Thee; let us not seek our own wills, but the will of him that called us; yea, let us delight to do thy will, O God, let our delight be in thy Law, and let us meditate therein day & night; cause us to deny ungodliness, & worldly lusts, and to live soberly, & righteously, & godly in this present world, as obedient children, not fashioning our selves to the former lusts of our ignorance; but as he that hath called us is holy, let us be holy in all manner of conversation. Cause us to love one another with a pure heart, fervently, forbearing, and forgiving one another, if any have a quarrel against another, even as Christ forgave us. Give us the wisdom which is first pure, and then peaceable. In our eyes let a vile person be contemned, but let us honour them that fear the Lord. Cause us to walk circumspectly without offence, and to be zealous of good works to love our enemies, and not to give place to wrath; and in patience to possess our souls. Help us to deny our selves, and take up our Crosse, and follow Christ; esteeming his reproach to be greater riches riches than the treasures of the world, that having suffered with him, we may also be glorified with him. Though we must be tempted, help us to overcome, and be faithful unto the death; and then let us receive that Crown of Life, through the merits and intercession of Christ Jesus our Lord and onl^y Saviour: In whose comprehens^{ive} words we sum up our Requests, saying as he hath taught us, Our Father which art in Heaven, hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come, &c.

Or thus, when Brevity is necessary.

O Most great, most just and gracious God, Thou art of purer eyes than to behold iniquity, thou condemnest the ungodly, impenitent, and unbelievers; but hast promised mercy through Jesus Christ to all that repent and believe in him. We confess that we were conceived in sin, and are by nature children of wrath. And have all sinned and come short of the glory of God. In our Baptism thou tookest us into the bond of the holy Covenant, but we remembred not our Creator in the days of our youth, with the fear and love, and obedience which we owed thee: not pleasing, and glorifying thee in all things, nor walking with thee by faith in an heavenly conversation, nor serving thee fervently with all our might; but fulfilled the desires of the flesh, and of the carnal mind. We have neglected and abused thy Holy Worship, thy Holy Name, and thy Holy Day. We have dishonoured our superiours, and neglected our inferiours: We have dealt unjustly and uncharitably, with our Neighbours, not loving them as our selves, nor doing to others as we would they should do to us; We have not sought first Thy Kingdom, and Righteousness, and have contented with our daily bread; but have been careful and troubled about many things neglecting the one thing necessary. Thou hast revealed thy wonderful love to us in Christ, and offered us pardon and salvation in him: but we made light of it, and neglected so great salvation, and resisted thy Spirit, Word, and discipline, and turned not at thy reproof: We have run into temptations; and the sin which we should have hated, we have committed in thy sight, both secretly and openly, ignorantly and carelessly, rashly, and presumptuously, against thy precepts, thy promises, and threats threats, thy mercies and thy judgments: our transgressions are multiplied before Thee, and our sins testify against us; if Thou deal with us as we deserve, Thou wilt cast us away from thy presence into Hell, where the worm never dieth, and the fire is not quenched. But in thy Mercy, thy Son, and thy Promises is our hope. Have mercy upon us most mercifull Father. Be reconciled to us, and let the blood of Jesus Christ cleanse us from all our sins. Help us to redeem the time, and give all diligence to make our Calling and Election sure. Give us things necessary for thy service, & keep us from sinfull discontent and cares. And seeing all these things must be dissolved, let us consider what manner of persons we ought to be, in all holy conversation & godliness. Help us to watch against temptations, and resist and overcome the flesh, the Devil, & the World: and being delivered out of the hand of all our enemies, let us serve Thee without fear in holiness and righteousness before Thee all the daies of our life. [Here use the Lords Prayer as before.]

For the strengthening of Faith, and raising the Penitent, some of these Sentences of the Gospel may be here read.

Hear what the Lord saith to the Absolution and Comfort of Penitent Believers.

- 2 Chron. 30. 9. THe Lord your God is gracious and mercifull, and will not turn away his face from you, if ye return unto him.
- 1 Joh. 2. 1. If any man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous, and he is the Propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole World.
- Act. 13. 38, 39. Be it known unto you, Men and Brethren, that through this Man is preached to you the Forgiveness of Sins; and by him, all that believe are justified, justified from all things, from which they could not be justified by the Law of Moses.

Where Sin abounded, Grace did much more abound, That in Sin reigned unto death, even so might Grace reign through Righteousness, unto Eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Rom 5. 20. 21.

If we walk in the light, as he is in the Light, we have fellowship one with another, And the Blood of Jesus Christ his Son, cleanse us from all Sin. If we say that we have no Sin, we deceive our selves, and the truth is not in us. If we confesse our Sin, he is faithful and just to forgive us our Sin, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 1 Joh. 1. 7, 8, 9.

Come unto me all ye that labour, and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my Yoke upon you, and learn of me, for I am meek and lowly in heart, and ye shall find Rest unto your Souls. For my yoke is easie, and my burden is light. Mat. 11. 28, 29.

Whoever will, let him take of the Water of life freely. All that the Father hath given me, shall come to me, and him that cometh to me, I will in no wise cast out. Rev. 2. 17. Joh. 6. 27.

I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and iniquities, I will remember no more. Heb. 8. 12.

Hear also what you must Be, and Do, for the time to come, if you would be Saved.

Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. If any man be in Christ, he is a new Creature; old things are passed away, behold all things are become new. Rom 8. 9. 2 Cor. 5. 17.

There is no Condemnation to those that are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the Flesh, but after the Spirit. For they that are after the Flesh, do mind the things of the Flesh; but they that are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. Rom. 8. 1.

For to be carnally minded is death, but be spiritually minded, is life and peace. 6.

For the Carnal mind is enmity against God, for it is not subject to the Law of God, neither indeed can be. 9.

So then they that are in the Flesh cannot please God. 8.

For if ye live after the Flesh ye shall dye, but if through the Spirit ye mortifie the deeds of the body, ye shall live. 13.

Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these, Adultery, Fornication, uncleannes, Lasciviousnes, Idolatry, witchcraft, Hatred, Variance, Emulations, Wrath, Strife, Sedition, Heresies, Envyings, Murders,

1 Cor. 15. 58.

Drunkenness, Revellings, and suchlike: of the which I tell you before, as I have told you in time past, that they which do such things, shall not inherit the Kingdom of God.

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance; against such there is no Law. And they that are Christs, have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts.

Let us walk honestly as in the day, not in rioting and drunkenness; not in chambering and wantonness; not in strife and envying. But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh to fulfill the lusts thereof.

Love not the World, neither the things that are in the World: if any man love the World, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the World, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eye, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the World.

Enter ye in at the strait gate, for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leadeth to destruction, and many there be that go in thereat. Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way that leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

For the grace of God that bringeth Salvation, hath appeared unto all men, teaching us, that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, and righteously, and godly in this present World: looking for the blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God, and our Saviour Jesus Christ. Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all Iniquity, and purify to himself a peculiar People zealous of good Works.

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the Counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of Sinners, nor sitteth in the Seat of the Scornful, But his delight is in the Law of the Lord, and in his Law he doth meditate day and night.

The ungodly shall not stand in the Judgement, nor Sinners in the Congregation of the righteous.

Wherefore we receiving a Kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably, with reverence and godly fear: for our God is a consuming Fire.

Seeing then that these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be, in all holy conversation and godliness, looking for, and hasting to, the Coming of the day of God.

Therefore, my beloved Brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the Work of the Lord, for as much as ye know, that your labour is not in vain unto the Lord.

Then

Then may be said the 95. or the 100. Psalm, or the 84.

And next, the Psalms in order for the day ; And next, shall be read a Chapter of the Old Testament, such as the Minister findeth most seasonable ; or with the liberty expressed in the Admonition before the second Book of Homilies.

After which may be sung a Psalm, or the Te Deum said, then shall be read a Chapter of the New Testament, and then the Prayer for the King and Magistrates. And after that, the 67. or 93. or some other Psalm, may be sung or said, or the Benedictus, or Magnificat. And the same order to be observed at the Evening Worship, if time allow it.

NExt after the Psalm the Minister shall (in the Pulpit) first reverently, prudently, and fervently pray, according to the State and necessities of the Church, and those especially that are present, and according to the Subject that he is to preach on. And after Prayer, he shall preach upon some Text of holy Scripture suiting his matter to the necessities of the Hearers, and the manner of delivery to their quality and benefit. Always speaking from faith and holy experience in himself, with plainness and perspicuity, with reverence and gravity, with convincing evidence and authority, with prudence, caution, faithfulness, and impartiality, with tender love and melting compassion, with fervent zeal, and perswading importunity, & with frequency and unwearied Patience, waiting on God for the success. After Sermon he shall pray for a Blessing on the word of Instruction and Exhortation, which was delivered; And in his Prayers (before or after Sermon) ordinarily he shall pray for the Conversion of Heathens, Jews, and other Infidels; the subversion of Idolatry, Infidelity, Mahometanism, Heresie, Papal-Tyranny and Superstition, Schism, and Profaneness, and for the free progress of the Gospel, and the increase of Faith and Godliness, the honouring of Gods Name, the enlargement of the Kingdom of Christ, and the obedience of his Saints through the Nations of the Earth. And in special for these Nations, for the Kings Majesty, and the rest of the Royal Family, for the Lords of his Majesties Council, the Judges and other Magistrates of the Land, for the Pastors of the Church, and all Congregations committed to their Care, and Government. Alwaies taking heed that no mixtures of imprudent, disorderly expressions, of private discontent and passion, of unreverent, disobedient, seditious, or factious Intimations, tending to corrupt, and not to edifie the peoples minds, do turn either Prayer or Preaching into Sin. And ordinarily in Church-Communion, especially on the Lords Day (which is purposely separated for the joyfull Commemoration of the Blessed Work of mans Redemption) a considerable proportion of the Publick Worship must consist of Thanksgiving and Praises to God, especially for Jesus Christ and his Benefits; still leaving it to the Minister's discretion to abbreviate some parts of Worship, when he seeth it needful to be longer on some other.

The Sermon and Prayer being ended, let the Minister dismiss the Congregation with a Benediction, in these, or the like words.

2 Cor. 13. 14.

Except there be a Communion in the Sacrament of the Lords Supper to be celebrated, or any further Worship to be performed, and then the Minister may delay the Benediction till the End.

And because when there is leisure, the Prayers of the Church should be as full as the Rule and our Necessities require; let the following General Prayer be used, when the Minister findeth it convenient, instead of the Letany and Collects.

Here are also adjoyned a Thanksgiving for Christ and his benefits, & a Hymn to be used at the discretion of the Minister either after Sermon, or at the Communion, or on other days.

A Prayer for the King, the Royal Family, and Magistrates.

A mighty God, by whom Kings reign, and Princes decree Justice, who rulest in all the Kingdoms of men, and givest them to whomsoever thou wilt, who by thy special providence haſt ſet over us thy Servant Charles our King: Crown him with thy Blessings

Blessings, and satisfie him with thy Goodness. Save him by thy right hand, and defend him against such as rise up against him; prolong his life in Peace and Righteousness, grant him the Spirit of Wisdom and Counsel, the Spirit of Holiness, and the fear of the Lord, that he may know how to go in and out before this great People over whom thou hast set him. Let not thy Law depart out of his mind, or mouth but let him meditate in it day and night. Make him as an Angel of God, to discern between good and evil that in his eyes a vile person may be condemned, but he may honour them that fear the Lord; that his eyes may be upon the faithful of the Land, that they may dwell with him, and they that are perfect in the way serve him; Remove the Wicked from before him, that his Throne may be established in Righteousness & grant that under him we may lead a quiet & peaceable life in all Godliness and Honesty. And when he hath finished his course on Earth let him inherit a Crown of Righteousness and reign with Christ for ever. Bless the Queen Mother, the Illustrious Prince James, Duke of York, and the rest of the Royal Family, endue them with the Holy Spirit, enrich them with thy heavenly Grace, and make them blessings to their Generation. Enrich the Lords of his Majesties Council, & all the Nobility, the Judges and all the Magistrates of the Land with Wisdom from above, that they may rule as in thy fear, and judge Righteous Judgement, & may take heed what they do, as judging not for men, but for the Lord, that Justice may run down as Water, and Righteousness as a mighty stream. Let all his Majesties Subjects duly submit to him & obey him, not only for wrath, but for conscience sake; Let all his Kingdoms be the Kingdoms of the Lord, and of his Son Christ, that God may dwell amongst us, and that it may be said of them, The Lord bless thee, O habitation of Justice, & Fountain of Holiness: For Thine, O Father, with the Son and Holy Ghost, is the Kingdom and Power, and Glory for ever. Amen.

The General Prayer.

O most Holy, Blessed and Glorious Trinity, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, Three Persons, and One God, our Creator, the Father, and Sanctifier, our Lord, our Governor and Father; hear us, and have mercy upon us, miserable sinners.

Our Lord our Saviour, God and Man! who, having assumed our nature, by thy sufferings, and death, and burial, wast made a Ransome to take away the sins of the World; who, being raised from the dead, ascended and glorified, art made Head over all things to the Church, which thou gatherest, justifiest, sanctifiest, rulest, and preservest, and which at thy coming Thou wilt raise and judge to endless glory: We beseech Thee to hear us, miserable sinners; make sure to us our Calling and Election, our unfeigned Faith and Repentance; that being justified, and made the sons of God, we may have Peace with him, as our Reconciled God and Father.

Let thy holy Spirit sanctifie us, and dwell in us, and cause us to deny our selves, and to give up our selves entirely to Thee, as being not our own, but Thine.

As the World was created for thy Glory, let thy Name be glorified throughout the World; Let Self love and Pride, and Vain-glory be destroyed; cause us to love Thee, fear Thee, and Trust in Thee with all our hearts, and to live to Thee:

Let all the Earth subject themselves to Thee their King. Let the Kingdoms of the World become the Kingdoms of the Lord, and of his Christ. Let the Atheists, Idolaters, Mahometans, Jews, and other Infidels, and ungodly People, be converted. Send forth many Labourers into the Hardest and let the Gospel be preached throughout all the World. Preserve and bless them in thy World. Sustain in patience, and reasonably deliver, the Churches that are oppressed by Idolaters, Infidels, Mahometans, or other Enemies, or by the Roman Papal Usurpations.

Unite all Christians in Jesus Christ, the true and only universal Head, in the true Christian and Catholick Faith and Love; cast out Heresies and Corruptions, heal divisions: let the Strong receive the weak, and bear their Infirmitie; Re- strain the spirit of Pride and Cruelty, and let nothing be done in strife, or vain glory.

Keep us from Atheism, Idolatry, and Rebellion against Thee: from Iniquity, Ungodliness, and Sensuality; from Secularity, Presumption, and Despair. Let us delight to please Thee, and let thy Word be the Rule of our Faith and Lives; let us love it, and understand it, and meditate in it Day and Night.

Let

Let us not corrupt or neglect thy Worship, nor take thy Holy Name in vain; keep us from Blasphemy, Perjury, prophane Swearing, Lying, contempt of thy Ordinances, and from false unwothy, and unreverent thoughts and speeches of God, or holy things; and from the neglect and profanation of thy Holy Day.

Put it into the hearts of the Kings & Rulers of the World, to submit to Christ, and to rule for him as Ruling-fathers to his Church: and save them from the temptation that would drown them in sensuality; or would break them upon Christ, as a Rock of offence, by engaging them against his holy Doctrine, Writings, and Servants.

Have mercy on thy Servant Charles our King, protect his Person, illuminate and sanctify him by thy Spirit, that above all things he may seek thine honour, the increase of Faith, and holy Obedience to thy Laws; and may govern us, as thy Minister, appointed by Thee for the terror of evil doers, and the praise of them that do well; that under him we may live a quiet and peaceable life, in all Godliness and Honesty.

Have mercy upon all the Royal Family, upon the Lords of the Council, and all the Nobility, the Judges, and other Magistrates of these Lands. Let them fear Thee, and be Examples of Piety and Temperance, haters of Injustice, Covetousness, and Pride, & Defenders of the Innocent: in their eyes let a vile person be contemned, but let them honour them that fear the Lord.

Let every soul be subject to the Higher Powers, and not resist; Let them obey the King, and all in Authority, not only for wrath, but for conscience sake.

Give all the Churches, able, holy, faithful Pastors, that may soundly and diligently preach thy Word, and guide the flocks in waves of Holiness and Peace, overseeing and ruling them not by constraint, but willingly, not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind; not as being Lords over thy Heritage, but the Servants of all, and Examples to the flock; that when the chief Pastor shall appear, they may receive the Crown of Glory.

Let the people know those that are over them in the Lord, and labour among them, preaching to them the Word of God; let them highly esteem them in love for their works sake; account them worthy of double honour, and obey them in the Lord.

Let Parents bring up their Children in holy nurture, that they may remember their Creator in the days of their youth, and let Children love, honour, and obey them. Let Husbands love their Wives, and guide them in knowledge and holiness; and let Wives love and obey their Husbands. Let Masters rule their servants in the fear, and servants obey their Masters in the Lord.

Keep us from murders and violence, and insatiable passionate words and actions.

Keep us from fornication and all uncleanness, from Chambering and wantonness, from lustful thoughts and filthy Communication, and all unchaste behaviour.

Keep us from stealing or wronging our Neighbour in his property from perverting Justice, from false witnessing and deceit, from flandering, back biting, uncharitable censuring, or other wrong to the reputation of our Neighbours.

Keep us from robbing any thing that is our Neighbour's. Let us love our Neighbours as ourselves, and do to others as we would they should do to us.

Cause us to love Christ in his members with a pure and fervent love, and to love our Enemies, and do good to all, as we are able, but especially to the household of Faith.

Give us our necessary sustentation & provision for thy service, and contentment therewith; Bless our labours, and the fruits of the Earth in their season, and give us such temperate weather as tempests be unto; Deliver us and all thy servants from such sickness, wants, or other distresses, as may unreasonably take us off thy service. Keep us from gluttony and drunkenness, slothfulness, untimely gain, and from making provision for the flesh to satisfy its lusts.

When we sin, restore us by true Repentance and Faith in Christ: Let us loath our selves for our transgressions; forgive them all, and accept us in thy well-beloved Son, save us from the curse and punishment which they deserve, and teach us heartily to forgive others: Convert our enemies, persecutors and slanderers, and forgive them.

Cause us to watch against temptations to resist and overcome the flesh, the Devil and the World; and by no Allurements of pleasure, pleaſure profit or honour, to be drawn from thee, to ſin, let us patiently ſuffer with Chriſt, that we may reign with him.

Deliber us end all thy people from the enmity and rage of Satan, and all his wicked Inſtrument; and preſerve us to thy heavenly kingdom.

For thou only art the Univerſal King: All power is thine in Heaven and Earth: Of Thee, and through Thee, and to Thee are all things, and the glory ſhall be Thine forever, Amen.

Concerning the Pſalms for publick Uſe.

We deſire that inſtead of the imperfect verſion of the Pſalms in Meter now in Uſe, Mr. William Barton's Verſion, and that peruſed and approved by the Church of Scotland there in Uſe (being the beſt that we have ſeen) may be received and corrected by ſome ſkilful men, and both allowed (for grateful variety) to be Printed together in ſeveral Columns or Pages, and publickly uſed; At leaſt untill a better than either of them ſhall be made.

A Thankſgiving for Chriſt, and his gracious Benefits.

MOST Glorious God, accept though thy beloved Son, though from the hands of ſinners, of thankſgiving, which thy unſpeakable love and mercies, as well as thy Command, do bind us to offer up unto Thee. Thou art the Father of mercies, and the God of all conſolation, full of compaſſion, Gracious, long-ſuffering, Plenteous in goodneſſe and truth, keeping mercy for thouſands, forgiving Iniquity, Tranſgreſſion and Sin. For thy glory thou didſt create us after thine Image; Thou madeſt us a little lower than the Angels, and Crownedſt us with glory and honour; giving us Dominion over the works of thy hands, and putting all theſe things under our feet. And when we forſook thee, and broke thy Covenant, and rebelled againſt Thee, and corrupted our ſelves, and turned our glory into ſhame; thou didſt not leave us in the hands of Death, nor caſt us out into utter Deſperation: But thou didſt ſo love the ſinful World, as to give thy Son to be our Saviour. He took not upon him the nature of Angels, but of Man, The Word was made Fleſh, and dwelt among us. This is the unſearchable myſtery of love which the Angels deſire to pry into, He was tempted that he might ſuccour them that are tempted, and conquered the Tempter, that had conquered us: We became poor, that was Lord of all; to make us rich, He did not sin, but fulfilled all righteousness, to save us from our unrighteousness. He made himself of no reputation, but was rebiled, scorned, and spit upon, enduring the Crosse, and despising the shame to cover our shame, and to bring us unto glory. Thou laidst upon him the Iniquity of us all. He was bznised and wounded for our Transgressions, that we might be healed by his stripes. He gave himself a Ransome for us, and died for our sins. And rose again for our justification. We thank thee for his death that saith us from death, and that he bore the curse, to redeem us from the curse; and for his life which opened us the way to life. Thou hast given him to be head over all things to the Church, and hast given the Heathen to be his Inheritance, and given him a name above every name, and given all power, and judgement unto him, We thank thee for the New and better Covenant, for thy great and precious promises; That thou hast given us eternal life in Christ. That we have the clear and sure Revelation of thy will in the Holy Scriptures. That thou foundest thy Church upon Apostles and Prophets. Jesus Christ himself being the head Corner-stone. And hast committed to thy Ministers the word of Reconciliation, that as Ambassadors speaking in the stead of Christ, they might beseech us to be reconciled unto thee. We thank thee that by them thou hast opened our eyes, and turned us from darkness unto Light, and from the power of Satan unto God, We were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, taken captive by Satan at his will; but thy mercy saved us by the washing of Regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost. Thou mightest justly have left us to the blindness of our minds, and to the hardness of our hearts, to seared consciences, to be past feeling, to our own hearts lusts, to walk in our own Counsels, and to work uncleanness with greediness, when we so oft refused to come to Christ, that we might have life, and would not have him to reign over us. But thy patience waited on us in our sin; And all the day long didst thou stretch forth thy hand to a disobedient and gainsaying people. When we turned from thee, thou calledst after us, to turn and live: Thou drewest us to thy Son, and openedst our hearts to attend unto thy Call: Thou lovedst us first, and was found of them that sought thee not. Thou hast gardened pardoned our great and manifold transgressions, and justified us by Faith in Christ, and given us Repentance unto life: Thou hast adopted us to be thy sons, and joynt-heirs with Christ; and made us his members, and given us his Spirit: We are no more strangers but fellow Citizens with the Saints, and of thy household; Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who of his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope, by the Resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an Inheritance incorruptible, undefiled, that fadeth not away, reserved in Heaven for us. Thou keepest us by thy mighty power through Faith unto salvation, ready at last to be revealed, though (when they are needful) we must for a season be in heaviness under tribulations; thou hast promised, that all things shall work together for our good; in all our straits thou grantest us access to the Throne of grace, bidding us call upon thee, in the time of trouble, and promising to deliver us, that we may glorifie thee; every where we have leave to lift up unto thee holy hands, especially in the house of Prayer, and the Assembly of the Saints. Thou hast heard the voice of our supplications when we have cried unto thee; great is thy mercy towards us, O Lord, Thou hast delivered our souls from the lowest Hell; Thou hast sent forth from Heaven thy mercy & truth, and saved us from the reproach of him that would swallow us up: Thou art our hiding place; In the secrets of thy presence thou preferrest us from trouble, from the pride of men, and from the strike of Tongues. Thou dost compass us about with Songs of deliverance. O love the Lord, all ye his Saints! for the Lord preferbeth the faithful, and plentifully rewardeth the proud doer. He dealeth not with us after our sins, his Anger is but for a moment, but in his favour is life. In his wrath he remembereth mercy: All thy paths O Lord are mercy and truth to such as keep the Covenant. We come into thy house in the multitude of thy mercies. O give thanks unto the Lord for he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever. Glorify ye in his Holy Name, let the hearts of them rejoyce that seek him. Blessed are the People that know the joyful sound: They shall walk O Lord in the light of thy Countenance. In thy name shall they rejoyce all the day, and in thy righteousness and favour shall they be exalted: Blessed are they that dwell in thy house, they will be still praising thee. O satisfie us early with thy mercy, that we may rejoyce and be glad in

Bless the Lord, O my Soul! And all that is within me bless his Holy Name; Bless the Lord, O my Soul, & forget not all his benefits: who forgiveth all thine iniquities, and healeth all thy diseases: who redeemed thy life from destruction, and crowneth thee with loving kindness and tender mercies. As far as the East is from the West, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us. Behold what love the Father hath bestowed on us, that we should be called the Sons of God: because thy loving kindness is better than life; my Lips shall praise thee. Thus will I bless thee while I live, I will lift up my hands in thy name. My Soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness, and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips. Whom have I in Heaven but thee, and there is none on Earth that I desire besides thee. My flesh and my heart faileth, but God is the strength of my heart; my portion for ever. For so, all that are far from thee shall perish, but it is good for me to draw near to God. I am continually with thee. Thou hast holden me by my right hand, in the multitude of my thoughts within me, thy comforts delight my Soul. Thou shalt guide me with thy Counsel, and afterwards receive me to glory.

1 Joh. 16. 9. 11.

How excellent is thy loving kindness O God, therefore do the sons of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings. They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy House, and thou shalt make them drink of the Rivers of thy pleasures, for with thee is the Fountain of life. In thy light we shall see light; therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth. My flesh also shall rest in hope. Thou wilt show me the th path of life. In thy presence is fulness of joy, and at thy right hand are pleasures for evermore. Surely, Goodness and Mercy shall follow me all the days of my life. And I shall dwell in the House of the Lord for ever. O continue thy loving kindness to them that know thee, and thy righteousness to the upright in heart. To the end that my glory may sing praise unto thee, and and not be silent, O Lord my God, I give thanks to thee for ever.

The Third Part.

Glory to God in the Highest, On Earth Peace, Good will towards men! Praise ye the Lord, sing to the Lord a new Song. His praises in the Congregation of Saints. For the Lord taketh pleasure in his people, he will beautifie the meek with salvation. Let the Saints be joyful in glory. Let the high praises of God be in their mouths. All thy works praise thee, O Lord, & thy Saints shall bless thee. They shall speak of the glory of thy Kingdom, and talk of thy Power; To make known to the sons of men thy mighty Acts, and the glorious Majesty of thy Kingdom. Thy Kingdom is an everlasting Kingdom, and thy Dominions is through all Generations. The Elders and Saints about thy Throne rest not Day nor Night, saying, Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come. Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory, and Honour, and Power; for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created. They sing unto thee the Song of Moses, and of the Lamb, saying Great and marvellous are thy works Lord God Almighty; Just and true are thy ways, thou King of Saints. Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorifie thy Name! for thou only art Holy: For all Nations shall come and worship before thee, for thy judgements are made manifest. Worship is the Lamb that was slain, to receive Power, and Riches, and Wisdom, and Strength, and Honour, and Glory: For thou hast redeemed us to God by thy blood, and made us Kings and Priests to God.

Bless ye the Lord all ye his Hosts, ye Ministers of his that do his pleasure; Bless the Lord, all his Works in all places of his Dominions. Bless the Lord, O my soul; my mouth shall speak the Praises of the Lord. And let all Flesh bless his holy Name for ever and ever. Let every thing that hath breath praise the Lord. Praise ye the Lord.

The Order of Celebrating the Sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ.

This or the like Explication of the Nature, Use, and Benefits of this Sacrament, may be used at the discretion of the Minister, when he seeth it needful to the Instruction of the Communicants.

That you may discern the Lords body, and understand the Nature, Use, and Benefits of this Sacrament; you must know that God created man in his own Image, to know, and love, and serve his Maker; That man fell under the guilt of sin and condemnation, and lest his holy Fitnes for the work for which he was created. That hereupon the wonderful love & wisdom of God provided us a Remedy in our Redeemer, to the end he might not lose the glory of his Creation, that he might pardon and save us upon terms; Securing the honour of his justice, and attaining aining the ends of his Law & Government, & recover us to his love & service, by appearing to the World, in the greatest demonstrations of Goodness, Love, & Mercy; By the greatest Miracle of Condescension, he first promised, and then gave his only Son, the Eternal Word, to take mans nature into personal union with his God-head; that being God and Man, he might be a fit Mediator between God and Man, to restore us, and reconcile us to himself. Thus Jesus Christ, conceived by the Holy Ghost, and born of the Virgin Mary, became the second Adam, the Physician and Saviour of undone Sinners, the Captain of our Salvation, to be the glorious King & Head of all that are sanctified & saved. He revealed the Holiness, the Goodness, & the Love of God, by the perfect Holiness, the Goodness, & Love of his Blessed Person, Doctrine, & Conversation, & by suffering for us all the Afflictions of this life, & at last the Cursed death of the Cross, as a Sacrifice & Ransome for us. That all this might be effectual to our Recovery, he made for us a new & better Covenant, & preached it himself, undertaking the Pardon, Justification, & Sanctification of all that by unfeigned Faith do take him for their Saviour, repenting of their sins, & consenting to be sanctified by his Word & Spirit (by which also he inviteth, and draweth men to himself, & giveth them to believe). Into this blessed, pardoning, saving Covenant, we are first solemnly entred by Batism. And when Christ was ready to leave the World, & to give up himself a Sacrifice for us, & intercede and exercise the fulness of his Kingly Power, as the Churches Head; & by his grace to draw men to himself, & prepare them for his glory; he did himself institute this Sacrament of his body and blood at his last Supper, to be a continued Representation and Remembrance of his Death, and therein of his own and his Fathers Love untill his coming; appointing his Ministers by the Preaching of the Gospel, any Administration of these Sacraments, to be his Agents without, and his Spirit within, effectually to communicate his Grace.

[The Lords Supper then is a holy Sacrament instituted by Christ, wherein Bread & Wine being first by Consecration made sacramentally or Representatively the body and blood of Christ, are used by breaking & pouring out to represent & commemorate, the Sacrifice of Christs Body & Blood, upon the Cross once offered up to God for sin; & are given in the Name of Christ unto the Church, to signify & solemnize the renewal of his holy Covenant with them, & the giving of himself unto them, to expiate their sins by his Sacrifice, & sanctify them further by his Spirit, & confirm their right to everlasting life:

And.

And they are received, Eaten, & drunk by the Church, to profess that they willingly receive Christ himself to the Ends aforesaid (their Justification, Sanctification, and Glorification), and to signify and solemnize the Renewal of their Covenant with him, and their holy Communion with him, and with one another.]

It being the renewing of a mutual Covenant that is here solemnized, As we commemorate Christs Sacrifice, and receive him and his saving benefits; so we offer and deliver to him our selves, as his redeemed, sanctified people, to be a living Acceptable Sacrifice, thankfully and obediently to live unto his Praise.

Before the receiving of this holy Sacrament, we must examine our selves, and come preparedly: In the receiving of it, we must exercise holy affections suited to the work; And after the receiving of it, we must by consideration of it, endeavour to revive the same Affections, and perform our Covenant there renewed.

The holy Qualifications to be before Provided, & in receiving exercised, & after Receiving, are these, 1. A true belief of the Articles of the Christian Faith, concerning Father, Son, and Holy Ghost; the Person, Offices, Works, & Sufferings, and Benefits of Christ. 2. The sense of our sinfull & undone condition, as in our selves, & of our need of Christ: so as humbly to loath our selves for our transgressions with the sense of our present weaknesses to be strengthened, & sins to be forgiven. 3. A true desire after Christ for pardon, & spiritual Nourishment & Salvation. 4. A thankful sense of the Wonderful Love of God, declared in our Redemption, & in the present offers of Christ, & Life. 5. The exercise of holy love and joy in the sense of this unspeakable Love, (if these two be not felt before we come; yet in, & after the Sacrament, we must strive to exercise them). 6. A love to one another, and forgiving wrongs to one another, with a desire after the Communion of Saints. 7. The giving up our selves in Covenant to God, with resolution of renewed Obedience. 8. A patient hope for the Coming of Christ himself, and of the Everlasting Kingdom; where we shall be perfectly united in him, and glorified with him.

Those only are to be invited to the Lord's Table, and to come, that truly repent and believe, and unfeignedly consent to the terms of the Covenant (though all are to be invited thus to believe and repent, and so come.) But those are to be admitted, by the Pastors, if they come, who, having the use of reason to understand what they do, and examine themselves, have made a personal Profession of Faith, Repentance, and Obedience; and are Members of the Church, and not justly for Heresie or scandalous sin removed from its present Communion.

The benefit of the Sacrament is not to be judged of only by present experience and feelings, but by Faith. God having appointed us to use it, and promised his Blessing, we may and must believe, that he will make good his promise; and what ever we feel at present, that we sincerely wait not on him in vain.

The Exhortation.

YOU are invited hither, Dear Brethen, to be Guests at this Holy Table, by the Lords Command, to receive the greatest Mercy, and to perform the greatest Duty. On Christs part, all things are made ready. The Feast is prepared for you, even for you that by sin have deserved to be cast out of the presence of the Lord; for you that have so oft neglected and abused Mercy. A Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ, free to you, but dear to him. You were lost, and in the way to be lost for ever, when by the greatest Miracle of Condescending love, he sought and saved you. You were dead in sin, condemned by the Law, the slaves of Satan; there wanted nothing but the Executing-sword of Justice to have sent you into endless misery; when our Redeemer pitied you in his blood, and shed his own to wash and heal you. He suffered that was offended, that the offender might not suffer. He cried out on the Crosse, My God, My God, why hast thou forsaken me, that we who had deserved it, might not be everlastingly forsaken. He died, that we might live. O how would the Mercy of Redemption have affected you, if you had first lyen one year, or moneth, or day in Hell! had you but seen your dying Lord, or seen the damned in their misery, how do you think you should have valued the Salvation that is now revealed and tendered to you? see here Christ dying in this holy Representation. Behold the sacrificed Lamb of God, that taketh away the sins of the world! It is his will to be thus frequently crucified before our eyes. O how should we be covered with shame, and loath our selves, that have procured the death of Christ by sin, and sinned against it! And how should we all be filled with joy, that have such Mysteries of Mercy opened; and so great Salvation freely offered to us! O hate sin, O love this Saviour: See that you come not hither without a desire to be more Holy, not with a purpose to go on in wilfull sin. Be not deceived, God is not mocked; but if you heartily repent, and consent to the Covenant, come and welcome; We have commission from Christ to tell you, that you are welcome. Let no trembling, contrite soul draw back, that is willing to be Christ's upon his covenant-terms, but believe that Christ is much more willing to be yours. He was first willing, and therefore died for you, and made the covenant of grace, and sent to invite and importune you to consent, and stayed for you so long, & gave you your repentance, your willingness and desire. Question not then his willingness, if you are willing. It is Satan and unbelief that would have you question it, to the injury both of Christ and you. Come neer, observe, believe, and wonder at the riches of his love and grace; for he hath himselfe invited you to see and taste, that you may wonder. You are sinners, but he inviteth you to receive a renewed, sealed pardon of your sins, and to give you more of his Spirit to overcome them. See here his broken body, and his blood, the testimonies of his willingness. Thus hath he sealed the covenant, which pardoneth all your sins, and secureth you of your reconciliation with God, and your adoption, and your right to everlasting Blessedness. Deny not your consent, but hear it: give up your selves to Christ, and then doubt not but your Scarlet, Crimson-sins shall be made as white as Wooll or Snow. Object not the number or greatness of them against his Grace: There is none too great for him to pardon to penitent Believers. Great sins shall bring great glory to his Blood and Grace. But strive you then for great loathing of your sins, and greater love to such a God, and greater thanks to such a Saviour. Unfeignedly say, I am willing Lord to be wholly Thine, and then believingly take Christ, and Pardon, and Life, as given you by his own appointment in the sealed Covenant. And remember that He is a coming. He is coming with thousands of His Mighty Angels, to execute judgment on the ungodly, but to be glorified in his Saints, and admired in all that do believe. And then we shall have greater things then these. Then shall you see all the Promises fulfilled, which now are sealed to you, on which he causeth you to trust. Revive now your love to one another, and forgive those that have wronged you, and delight in the Communion of the Saints: And then you shall be admitted into the Church Triumphant, where with perfect Saints you shall perfectly rejoice, and love and praise the Lord for ever. Receive now a crucified Christ here represented, and be contented to take up your Cross, and follow him. And then you shall Reign with a glorified Christ, in the blessed vision and fruition of that God, to whom by Christ, you are now reconciled. Let faith and love be working upon these things, while you are at this holy Table.

Then shall the Minister use this or the like prayer.

Most holy God, we are as stubble before thee, the consuming fire. How shall we stand before thy Holiness, for we are a full people, laden with iniquity that have gone backward and provoked the help one of Israel, when we were left, thy Son did seek and save us; when we were dead in sin thou madest us alive: Thou savest us polluted in our blood, and sedest unto us life: In that time of love thou coveredst our nakedness, and enteredst into a covenant with us and we became thine own. Thou didst deliver us from the power of darkness, and translate us into the Kingdom of thy dear Son; and gavest us remission of sin through his blood. But we are grievous Rebels. We have forgotten the covenant of the Lord our God; we were engaged to love thee with all our hearts and to hate iniquity, and serve thee diligently, and thankfully to set forth thy praise. But we have departed from thee, and corrupted our selves by self-love, and by loving the world, and the things that are in the world and have fulfilled the desires of the flesh, which we should have crucified. We have neglected our duty to thee, and to our neighbour, and the necessary care of our salvation. We have been unprofitable servants, and have hid thy Talents, and have dishonoured thee, whom in all things we should have pleased and glorified. We have been negligent in hearing and reading thy holy Word, and in meditating and considering of it, in publick and private Prayer and Thanksgiving, and in our preparation to this holy Sacrament, in the examining of our selves, and repenting of our sins, and stirring up our hearts to a believing and thankful receiving of thy grace, and to love and fellowship in our communion with thee and with one another. We have not duly discerned the Lords Body, but have prophaned thy holy Name and Ordinance, as if the Table of the Lord had been contemptible. And when thou hast spoken Peace to us; we returned again to Fellowship. We have desired O Lord, to be cast out of thy presence, and to be forsaken, as we have forsaken thee, and to hear to our confusion, Depart from me, I know you not ye workers of iniquity. Thou mayest justly tell us thou hast no pleasure in us, nor wilt receive an offering at our hands: But with this there is abundant mercy. And our Advocate Jesus Christ the righteous is the propitiation for our sins: who bare them in his body on the cross, and made himself an offering for them, that he might put them away by the sacrifice of himself; Have mercy upon us, and wash us in his blood, cloath us with his righteousness, take away our iniquities, and let them not be our ruine, forgive them and remember them no more. O thou that delightest not in the death of sinners, heal our backslidings, love us freely, and say unto our souls, that thou art our salvation. Thou wilt in no wise cast out them that come unto thee, receive us graciously to the Feast thou hast prepared for us; cause us to hunger and thirst after Christ and his Righteousness, that we may be satisfied. Let his flesh and blood be to us meat and drink indeed; And his Spirit be in us a well of living water, springing up to everlasting life. Give us to know thy love in Christ, which passeth knowledge. Though we have not seen him let us love him. And though we see him not, yet believing let us rejoyce with joy unspeakable and full of glory; Though we are unworthy of the crumbs that fall from thy Table, yet feed us with the Bread of Life, and speak and seal up peace to our sinfull wounded souls. Soften our hearts that are hardened by the deceitfulness of sin: Fortifie the flesh and strengthen us with might in the inward man; that we may live and glorifie thy Grace, through Jesus Christ our onely Saviour. Amen.

Here let the Bread be brought to the Minister, and received by him and set upon the Table, and then the Wine in like manner (or if they be set there before) however let him bless them, praying in these or the like words.

Then (or immediately before this Prayer) let the Minister read the words of the Institution, saying.

Hear what the Apostle Paul saith, 1 Cor. 11. [For I have received 1 Cor. 11. 23, of the Lord, that which also I deliver unto you; that the Lord Jesus the same night, in which he was betrayed, took Bread, and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, Eat, This is my Body which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. After the same manner also he took the Cup, when he had supped, saying, This Cup is the New Testament in my Blood, This do ye, as oft as ye drink it in remembrance of me: For as often as ye Eat this Bread, and Drink this Cup, ye do shew the Lords death till he come.] 24, 25, 26.

Then let the Minister say.

This Bread and Wine being set apart, and consecrated to his Holy use by Gods appointment, are now no Common Bread and Wine, but sacramentally the Body and Blood of Christ.

Then let him thus Pray.

Most mercifull Saviour, as thou hast loved us to the death, and suffered for our sins the just for the unjust, and hast instituted this holy Sacrament to be used in remembrance of Thee till thy coming; we beseech thee by thine intercession with the Father, through the Sacrifice of thy Body and Blood; give us the pardon of our sins, and thy quickning Spirit, without which the flesh will profit us nothing. Recommend us to the Father: Pourth us as thy Members to Everlasting Life. Amen.

Then let the Minister take the Bread, and break it in the sight of the People, saying,

The Body of Christ was broken for us, and offered once for all to sanctifie us: Behold the sacrificed Lamb of God, that taketh the sins of the World.

Then let him thus Pray.

Most Holy Spirit, proceeding from the Father and the Son, by whom Christ was conceived, by whom the Prophets and Apostles were inspired, and the Ministers of Christ are qualified and called, that dwellest and workst in all the Members of Christ, whom thou sanctifiest to the Image, and for the service of thine Head, and comfortest them that they may shew forth his Praise: Illuminate us, that by faith we may see him that is here represented to us. Soften our hearts, and humble us for our sins. Sanctifie and quicken us, that we may relish the spiritual Food, and feed on it to our Nourishment and growth in Grace. Shed abroad the love of God upon our hearts, and draw them out in love to him. Fill us with thankfulness and holy Joy, and light love to one another: Comfort us by witnessing that we are the Children of God. Confirm us for new obedience. Be the earnest of our inheritance, and seal us up to Everlasting Life: Amen.

Then let the Minister deliver the Bread thus Consecrated and broken to the Communicants, first taking and eating it himself as one of them, when he hath said;

Take ye, Eat ye, This is the Body of Christ which is broken for you. Do this in remembrance of him.

This cup is the New Testament in Christ's Blood, or [Christ's Blood of the New Testament] which is shed for you for the remission of sins, Drink ye all of it in remembrance of him.

Let it be left to the Ministers choice, whether he will consecrate the Bread and Wine together, and break the Bread, and pour out the Wine immediately; or whether he will consecrate and pour out the Wine, when the Communicants have eaten the Bread. If he do the latter, he must use the fore-going Prayers and Expressions twice accordingly, and let it be left to his discretion, whether he will use any words at the breaking of the Bread, and pouring out the Wine, or not; And if the Minister chuse to pray but once at the Consecration, Commemoration, and Delivery; Let him pray as followeth, or to this sense:

ALmighty God thou art the Creator, and the Lord of all. Thou art the Sovereigne Majestie whom we have offended. Thou art our mercifull Father, who hast given us thy Son to reconcile us to thy self; who hath ratified the New Testament and Covenant of Grace with his most precious blood, and hath instituted this Holy Sacrament to be celebrated in memorie of him, till his coming. Sanctifie these thy creatures of Bread and Wine, which according to thy will, we set apart to this holy use, that they may be sacramentally, the Body and Blood of thy Son Jesus Christ. And through his sacrifice and Intercession, give us the pardon of all our sins, and be reconciled to us, and nourish us by the body and blood of Christ to Everlasting life. And to that end, give us thy quickning Spirit to shew Christ to our believing souls, that is here represented to our senses. Let him soften our hearts, and humble us for our sins, and cause us to feed on Christ by faith. Let him shew abroad thy love upon our hearts, and draw them on in love to thee, and fill us with holy joy and thankfulness and fervent love to one another, let him comfort us by witnessing that we are his children, and confirm us for new obedience, and be the earnest of our Inheritance, and seal us up to life everlasting through Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour, Amen.

Let it be left to the Ministers discretion, whether to deliver the Bread and Wine to the people (at the Table) onely in general, each one taking it, and applying it to themselves: or to deliver it in general to so many as are in each particular form: or to put it into every persons hand. As also at what season to take the contribution for the the Poor. And let none of the people be forced to sit stand, or kneel in the Act of Receiving, whole judgement is against it.

The Participation being ended, let the Minister pray thus, or to this sence.

Most Glorious God, how wonderful is thy power and wisdom, thy Holiness and Justice, thy love and mercy in this work of our Redemption, by the Incarnation, life, death, resurrection, intercession and dominion of thy Son! No power or wisdom in Heaven or Earth, could have delibered us but thine. The Angels desire to pry into this mystery, the heavenly Hosts doe celebrate it with praises, saying, Glorify he to God in the highest, on Earth peace, good will towards men. The whole creation shall proclaim thy Praises, Blessing, Honour, Glory and power be unto him that sitteth upon the Throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever. Alas! thy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and honour, and glory, for he hath redeemed us to God by his blood, and made us Kings and Priests unto our God. Alas! there is abundance of Grace hath abounded much more. And hast thou indeed forgiven us so great a debt, by so precious a Ransome? Wilt thou indeed give us to Reigne with Christ in Glory, and see thy face, and love thee, and be beloved of thee for ever? Yea, Lord thou hast forgiven us, and thou wilt glorifie us, for thou art faithfull that hast promised. With the blood of thy Son, with the Sacrament, and with thy Spirit, thou hast sealed up to us these precious promises. And shall wee not love thee, that hast thus loved us? Shall wee not love thy servants, and forgive our neighbours their little debt? After all this shall wee again forsake thee, and deal falsly in thy covenant? God forbid; Let our affections on the things above, where Christ sitteth at the right hand; let us no more mind earthly things: but let our conversation be in Heaven, from whence wee expect our Saviour to come and change us into the likeness of his glory. Teach us to do thy will O God and to follow him who is the Author of eternall salvation, to all them that do obey him. Order our steps by thy word: let not any iniquity have dominion over us. Let us not henceforth live unto our selves, but unto him who died for us and rose againe. Let vs have no Fellowship with the unfruitfull woorks of darknesse, but reprove them. And let our light so shine before men, that they may glorifie thee. In Simplicity, and Sincerity, and not in fleshly wisdome, let us have our Conuersation in the world. That our wayes were so directed that we might keepe thy Statutes / Though Satan will be desirous againe to sift us, and seek as a Roaring Lion to devour, strengthen us to stand against his Wiles, and Godly bruisse him under our feet. Accept us, O Lord, who resign our selves unto thee, as thine own; and with our thanks and praise, present our selves a living Sacrifice to be acceptable through Christ. Usefull for thine honour. Being made free from sin, and become thy Servants, let us have our fruit unto Holinesse, and the End Everlasting Life. Through Iesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

Next add this, or some such Exhortation, if there be time.

Dear Brethren, we have been here feasted with the Son of God at his Table. upon his Flesh and Blood, in preparation for the Feast of Endlesse Glory. You have seen here represented, what sin deserveth, what Christ suffereth, what wonderful Love the God of infinite Goodnesse hath expressed to us. You have had Communion with the Saints, you have renewed your Covenant of Faith, and thankfull Obedience unto Christ; You have received his renewed Covenant of Pardon, Grace and Glory unto you. O carry hence the lively sense of these great and excellent things upon your hearts: You came not onely to receive the mercy of an hour onely, but that which may spring up to Endlesse Joy: You came not onely to do the duty of an hour, but to promise that which you must perform while you live on Earth. Remember daily, especially when temptations to unbeleeve, and sinfull heaviness assault you, what pledges of Love you here received; Remember daily, especially when the Flesh, the Devil, or the world, would draw your hearts againe from God, and temptations to sin are laid before you, what bonds God and your own consent have laid upon you. If you are penitent Believers, you are now forgiven, and washed in the Blood of Christ. O go your way, and sin no more. No more through willfulness, and strive against your sins of weakness. Wallow no more in the mire, and returne not to your vomit. Let the exceeding Love of Christ constrain you, having such Promises, to cleanse yourselves, from all filthiness of Flesh and Spirit, perfecting Holiness in the fear of God: And as a Chosen Generation, a Royal Priesthood, an Holy Nation, a Peculiar People, to be Zealous of good works, and shew forth the Praises of him that hath called you.

Next sing part of the Hymn in meter, - or some other fit Psalm of Praise (as the 23: 116. or 103 or 100, &c.) And conclude with this or the like Blessing.

NOW the God of Peace, which brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus Christ, that great Shep of the Sheep, through the Blood of the Everlasting Covenant make you perfect in every good work to doe his Will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be Glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Celebration of the Sacrament of Baptism.

LET no Minister, that is therein unsatisfied, be forced against his Judgment, to baptize the Child of open Atheists, Idolaters, or Infidels, or that are unbaptized themselves, or of such as do not competently understand the Essentials of Christianity (what it is to be a Christian) and the Essentials of Baptism, nor of such as never since they were baptized, did personally own their baptismal covenant, by a credible profession of faith and Obedience received and approved by some Pastor of the Church, as before Confirmation is required, and in His Majesties Declaration. Nor yet the Child of Parents justly excommunicate, or that live in notorious, scandalous sin, or have lately committed such a sin (as if the Child be gotten in Adultery or Fornication) and being justly convicted of it, refuseth penitently to confess it, and promise Reformation. But if either of the Parents be duly qualified, and present the Child to be baptized (or another for them in case they cannot be present) the Child is to be received unto Baptism.

And

And if both the natural parents are Infidels, Excommunicate, or otherwise unqualified, yet if any become teſt Pro-parents and owners of the Child, and undertake to educate it in the faith of Chriſt, and fear of God, and ſo preſent it to be Baptized: let it be done by a Miniſter whoſe judgement doth approve it, but let no Miniſter be forced to it againſt his judgement. Let the parents or owners come to the Miniſter at ſome convenient time the week before, and acquaint him when they intend to offer their Child to Baptiſm, & give an account of their fore-ſaid capacity, and receive his further Miniſterial aſſiſtance for the fuller underſtanding of the uſe the benefits of the Sacrament, and their own duty. The Font iſto be placed to the greateſt conveniency of the Miniſter and people. The Child, or Children being there preſented, the Miniſter may begin with this or the like ſpeech directed to the Parent, or Parents (that preſenteth it.)

THat you may perform this ſervice to God with underſtanding, you muſt know, that God having made man in his own image, to love and ſerve him, our firſt Parents wilfully corrupted themſelves by ſin, and became the Children of Death, and the Captives of Satan, who had overcome them by his temptation: and as by one man ſin entered into the world, and death by ſin, ſo death paſſed upon all, for that all have ſinned, and came ſhort of the glory of God. We are conceived in ſin, and are by nature children of wrath: For who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean. By the offence of one, judgement came upon all men to condemnation. But the infinite Wiſdome and Love of the Father hath ſent his Son to be the Saviour of the world. The Word was made Fleſh, and dwelt on earth, and overcame the Devil and the World; fulfilled all righteousneſs, and ſuffered for our ſins upon the Croſs, & roſe again, and reigneth in Glory, and will come again and judge the world in righteousneſs. In him God hath made and offered to the world a covenant of Grace, and in it the pardon of ſin to all true penitent Believers, and power to be the Sons of God and Heirs of Heaven: This covenant is extended to theſed alſo of the Faithful, to give them the benefits ſuitable to their age, the parents dedicating them unto God, and entering them into the Covenant, and ſo God in Chriſt will be their God, and number them with his People.

This Covenant is to be ſolemnly entered into by Baptiſm (which is an holy Sacrament inſtituted by Chriſt, in which a perſon profeſſing the Christian Faith (or the Infant of such) is baptized in water into the name of the Father, Son, and holy Ghost, in signification and solemnization of the holy Covenant, in which as a penitent Believer, (or the seed of such) he giveth up himself (or is by the parent given up) to God the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, from henceforth (or from the time of natural capacity) to believe in, love & fear this blessed Trinity, against the Flesh, the Devil and the World; and this especially on the account of Redemption: and is solemnly entered a Visible Member of Christ and his Church, a child of God, and an heir of Heaven.] How great now is the mercy, and how great the duty that is before you? Is it a small mercy for this child to be accepted into the covenant of God, and washed from its original sin in the blood of Christ, which is signified and sealed by this Sacramental washing in water, to be accepted as a Member of Christ and of his Church, where he vouchsafeth his protection and provision, and the means and Spirit of Grace, and the renewed pardon of sin upon repentance, and for you to see this happiness of your Child? The duty on your part, is first to see that you are stedfast in the faith and Covenant of Christ, that you perish not your self, and that your Child is indeed the Child of a believer: and then you are believingly and thankfully to dedicate your Child to God, and to enter into the Covenant in which you stand. And you must know that your faith and consent, and dedication will suffice for your Children no longer than till they come to age themselves, and then they must own their Baptifinal Covenant, and personally renew it, and consent, and give up themselves to God, or else they will not be owned by Christ. You must therefore acquaint them with the Doctrine of the Gospel as they grow up, and with the Covenant now made, and bring them up in the fear of the Lord. And when they are actually penitent believers, they must present themselves to the Pastors of the Church, to be approved and received into the Communion of the Adult Believers.

If the persons be before well instructed in the nature of Baptism, and time require brevity, the Minister may omit the first part of this speech, and begin at the description of Baptism, or after it. If there be need of satisfying the people of the duty of Baptizing Infants, the Minister may here do it; otherwise let the Question here immediately follow.

The Minister shall here say to the parent, and the parent answer as fo loweth.

IT being the Faithful, and their seed, to whom the promises are made; and no man will sincerely dedicate his child to that God that he believeth not in himself; I therefore require you to make profession of your own Faith.

Quest. Do ye believe in God the Father Almighty, &c.

Ans. All this I do unfeignedly believe.

Quest. Do you repent of your sins, and renounce the Flesh, the Devil, and the World, and consent to the Covenant of Grace, giving up your self to God the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, as your Creator, and Reconciled Father, your Redeemer, and your Sanctifier?

Ans. I doe.

[Or thus rather, if the parent be fit to utter his own Faith.]

Quest. Do you remain stedfast in the Covenant, which you made in Baptism your self?

Ans. Repenting of my sins, I do renounce the Flesh, the Devil, and the World, and I give my self to God the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, my Creator, and Reconciled Father, my Redeemer, and my Sanctifier.

Quest. Do you present and dedicate this child unto God, to be baptized into this Faith, and solemnly engaged in this Covenant unto God the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, against the Flesh, the Devil, and the World?

Ans. It is my desire (or) I do present and dedicate him for this end.

Quest. Do you here solemnly promise, that if God continue it with you, till it be capable of Instructions, you will faithfully endeavour to acquaint this child with the Covenant in which he was here by you engaged, and to instruct and exhort him to perform this Covenant, as ever he looks for the blessing of it, or to escape the curses and wrath of God: that is, That he renounce the Flesh, the World, and the Devil, and live not after them; And that he believe in this one God, in three Persons, the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, his Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier. That he resign himself to him as his absolute Owner, and obey him as his Supreme governour, and love him as his most gracious Father, hoping to enjoy him as his felicity in endless glory.

Ans. I will faithfully endeavour it.

Quest.

Of Baptism.

Quest. Will you to this end faithfully endeavour to cause him to learn the Articles of the Christian faith, the Lords Prayer, and the ten Commandments, and to read, or hear the holy Scriptures, and to attend on the publick Preaching of Gods word? Will you endeavour by your own Teaching, and Example, and Restraint, to keep him from wickednesse, and train him up in a holy life?

Ans. I will faithfully endeavour it by the help of God.

Then let the Minister pray thus, or to this sense.

O most mercifull Father, by the first Adam sin entered into the world; and death by sin, and we are all by nature Children of Wrath; but thou hast given thy onely Son to be the seed of the Woman, the Saviour of the World, the Captain of our Salvation, to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself, and to wash us in his blood, and reconcile us unto thee, and to renew us by the Holy Ghost, and to bridle Satan under our feet: In him thou hast established the Covenant of Grace, and hast appointed this holy Sacrament of Baptism for our solemn Entrance into Bonds of the Covenant, and stating us in the Blessings of it, which thou extendest to the faithfull and their seed. We dedicate and offer this Child to thee, to be received into thy covenant and Church. We beseech thee to accept him as a member of thy Son, and wash him in his blood from the guilt of sin, as the flesh is washed by this water. We reconciled to him, and take him for thy child, renew him to the Image of thy Son, make him a fellow citizen with the saints, and one of thy Household. Protect him and provide for him as thy own, and finally preserve him to thy Heavenly Kingdome, through Jesus Christ our Lord and saviour. Amen.

Then the Minister shall ask of the Parent the name of the Child to be Baptized, and naming him, shall either dip him under the water, or else pour water upon his face, if he cannot be safely or conveniently dipt, and shall use these words without Alteration.

I Baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

And

And he shall thus Declare.

THis Child is now received by Christs appointment into his Church, and solemnly entred into the holy Covenant, and engaged, if he lives to the use of Reason, to rise with Christ to newness of life, as being buried with him by Baptism, and to bear his Cross and confesse Christ crucified, and faithfully to fight under his Banner against the Flesh, the Devil, and the World and to continue his faithful Souldier and Servant to the death, that he may receive the Crown of life.

Then he shall give Thanks and Pray.

WEe thank thee, most merciful Father, that when wee had broken thy Law, and were condemned by it, thou hast given us a Saviour and life in him. and hast extended thy Covenant of Grace to Believers, and to their seed, and hast now received this childe into thy Covenant, and Church as a member of Christ by this Sacrament of Regeneration. We beseech thee, let him grow up in Holiness, and when he comes to years of discretion, let thy spirit reveal unto him, the mysteries of the Gospel, and the riches of the covenant that he hath now made, and to resign himself, and all that he hath entirely unto thee his Lord, to be subject and obedient to thee his Governour, and to love thee his Father with all his heart, and soul, and might, and adhere unto thee and delight in thee as the Portion of his soul, desiring and hoping to enjoy thee in everlasting Glory. Save him from the Luffs and Allurements of the Flesh, the temptations of the Devil, and the Baits of the pleasure, profit and honour of the world, and from all the corruptions of his own heart, and all the hurtful violence of his Enemies. Keep him in Communion with the Saints in the love and use of thy word and worship: Let him deny himself and take up his Cross and follow Christ the Captain of his Salvation, and be faithfull unto the death, and then receive the Crown of life, through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Then use this Exhortation or the like to the parents.

YOU that have devoted this child to God, and engaged it in covenant to him, must be thankful for so great a mercy to the child, and must be faithful in performing what you have promised on your parts, in instructing and educating this child in the Faith and fear of God, that he may own and perform the covenant now made, and receive all the blessings which God hath promised. Hear what God hath made your duty, Ephes. 6. 4. Fathers provoke not your children to wrath, but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord, Prov. 22. 6. Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it. Prov. 29. 15. The Rod and Reproof give wisdom, but a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame. Deut. 6. 5, 6, 7. Thou shalt love thy Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might, and these words which I command thee this day, shall be in thy heart, and thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and thou shalt talk of them when thou sittest in the house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. Josiah saith, Josh. 24. 15. As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord. And Paul saith of Timothy, 2 Tim. 3. 15. From a child thou hast known the holy Scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation, through Faith which is in Christ Jesus.

Then say to the People thus, or to this sense:

YOU have heard Beloved, how great a dignity we were advanced to in our baptism, to how great duty we are all engaged. O search & try whether you have kept or broken the covenant which you made, and have lived according to the dignity of your calling. And if any of you be Atheists, Unbelievers, or Ungodly, and love not God above all, and neglect Christ and his Salvation, and are yet unsatisfied, and live after the Flesh, the Devil, and the World, which you here renounced; As you love your souls, bewail your peridious Covenant-breaking with God. Trust not the water of Baptism alone; if you are not born again of the Spirit also, you cannot enter into the Kingdom of God, John 3. 5, 6. Baptism will not save you, if you have not the answer of a good conscience unto God, God, 1 Pet. 3. 21. If any man have not the Spirit of Christ, the same is none of his, Rom. 8. 9. Much lesse those wretches that hate Sanctification, and despise and scorn a holy life, when they were by Baptism engaged to the Holy Ghost the Sanctifier: can you think to be saved by the covenant, which you keep not? O no! your perfidiousnesse aggravateh your sin and misery, Eccles. 5. 4, 5. When thou vovest a vow to God, defer not to pay it, for he hath no pleasure in Fools: Pay that which thou hast vowed; better it is that thou shouldst not vow, than that thou shouldst vow and not pay. O bless the Lord, that it is a covenant of such Grace which is tendered to you, that yet upon true Repentance and conversion, even your covenant-breaking shall be forgiven; And therefore penitently cast down your selves before the Lord, and beleevingly cast your selves on Christ, and yeeld to the teachings, and sanctifying operations of the Holy Ghost, yet know the day of your Visitation, and forsake the Flesh, the Devil, and the world, and turn to God with all your hearts, and give up your selves intirely to your Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier, and he will have mercy upon you, and will abundantly pardon you. But if you still live after the Flesh, you shall die: And if you continue to neglect this great Salvation, there remaineth no more Sacrifice for sin, but a certain fearful looking for of Judgement, and Fire, which shall devour the Adversaries.

Let no children be privately baptized, nor any Minister forced to baptize them any where, besides in the Publick Assembly, unless upon some special weighty cause, if there be occasion for baptizing the Adult, let the Minister accordingly suite his expressions.

Of Catechizing, and the Approbation of those that are to be admitted to the Lords Supper.

SEeing none can be saved at years of discretion, that do not Sactuallly beleeve, and personally give up themselves in Covenant to God the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost; Therefore as Parents

rents must do their parts; so Ministers must catechize the Ignorant, and Diligently labour to cause them both to learn the Form of wholsome words (even the Lords Prayer, and the ten Commandments, and some brief, yet full and sound Catechism) and to understand the meaning of them, and to engage their hearts into the love of God, and a holy Obedience to his Laws.

To this end let the Minister either every Lordy Day, before the Evening Prayers, or at some convenient hour, or on some other day of the week, as oft as he can, examine publickly such as are not admitted to the Lords Supper, and take an account of their learning, and understanding the Creed, the ten Commandments, the Lords Prayer, and the Catechism. And let him by questioning and explication, help them to understand them; And let such of the several Families of the Parish come in their turns, when they are called by the Minister to be thus catechized. Also let the Minister either go to their houses, or rather appoint the persons aforesaid in their courses at a certain hour and place (in the Church or any other fit place) to come to him for personal Instructions, where he may confer with those that are unfit to be catechized Publickly, or unwilling to submit to it, and there with humble, prudent, serious Instruction and Exhortation, let him endeavour to acquaint them with the substance of Christian Faith, and Duty, and to help them to make sure their calling and Election, and to prepare for Death and Judgement, and exhort them to love, and to good works, and warn them lest they be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. But let him not in publick or private meddle with Impertinencies, or spend the time about smaller matters, or singular Opinions, nor sift people to know things unfit, or unnecessary to be disclosed, nor meddle with matters that do not concern him, as a Minister, to enquire after; But help them to learn, and understand, and practise the Christian Religion expressed in the Catechism.

See the Rubrick for Catechismo, & Confirmation in the Common Prayer, & also His Majesties Declaration concerning Ecclesiastical Affairs.

The Catechism.

LET none be admitted by the Minister to the Sacrament of the Lords Supper, till they have at years of discretion understood the meaning of their Baptismal covenant, & with their own mouths, and their own consent openly before the Church, ratified and confirmed, and also promised, that by the Grace of God they will ever-

examine and endeavour themselves faithfully to observe, and keep such things as by their own mouth and confession they have assented to; And so being instructed in the Christian Religion, do openly make a credible Profession of their own Faith, and promise to be obedient to the Will of God.

A Profession is credible, when it is made understandingly, seriously, voluntarily, deliberately, and not nullified by contradiction in Word or Deed. And that Profession is incredible, that is made ignorantly, ludicrously, forcedly, rashly, or that is nullified by verbal or practical contradiction. And it must be practise first, that must make words credible, when the person by perfidiousness hath forfeited his Credit. It is not private persons only, but the Pastors of the Church that must approve of this Profession. Therefore before any are admitted to the Lords Supper, they shall give a good account of their Knowledge, Faith, and Christian Conversation, conformable therunto unto the Pastors of their respective Congregations, or else shall produce a certificate, that they have been approved or admitted to the Lords Supper in another Congregation, of which they were members, and that by an allowed Minister, upon such approved Professions as aforesaid.

If the person be able and willing, let him before the Congregation give the aforesaid account at large of his Knowledge, Faith and Obedience; But if through backwardness or disability for publick speech, hee shall refuse it, let him make the same Profession privately to the Minister, and own it in the Assembly, when the Minister shall declare it, and ask him whether hee owns it; But unless it be in case of some extraordinary natural imperfection, and disability of utterance, let him at least openly recite the Creed, and profess his consent to the covenant with God the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Let the Minister of every Parish keep a double Register; one of the Names of all that are there baptized, another of the Names of all that are approved upon their aforesaid credible Profession, and so admitted into the number of Communicants, or that have a certificate of such Approbation regularly, elsewhere performed.

And if Confirmation be continued, let His Majesties Declaration be observed, requiring [That Confirmation be rightly and solemnly performed by the Information, and with the consent of the Minister of the place.]

Let no Minister be enforced to admit any himself to the Lords that entering this State of Marriage in thy fear, they may there intirely devote themselves unto thee, and be faithfull in all conjugall Affections and duties unto each other [and if thou blest them with children] let them be devoted unto thee, and accepted as thine own, and blessed with thy grace, and educated in thy fear. Subdue those corruptions that would make their lives unholy or uncomfortable, and deliver them from temptations to impiety, worldliness, unquietness, discontent, or dissatisfaction to each other, or to any unfaithfulness to thee or to each other; make them mutuall helps to each other in thy fear. And in the lawfull managing of the affairs of this World. Let them not hinder, but provoke one another to love, and to good works, any foretelling the day of their separation by death, let them spend their daies in a holy preparation; and live here together as the heirs of life, that must rejoyce at the great marriage day of the Lamb, and live for ever with Christ and all the holy Angels and Saints in the presence of thy glory, Amen.

Let them not live unto the flesh, but unto the Spirit: that of the Spirit they may reap everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

Then let him conclude with a Benediction.

God Almighty, the Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier, bless Upon in your Souls and Bodies, Families and Affairs, and preserve you to his heavenly Kingdom. Amen.

The Visitation of the Sick, and their Communion.

THe Visitation of the sick being a private duty, and no part of the publick Liturgy of the Church, and the case of the sick being so exceeding various, as to soul and body, and it being requisite that Ministers be able to suit their Exhortations and prayers to the condition of the sick, let the words of such Exhortations and Prayers be left to their prudence.

So urgent is the necessity of the sick, and so seasonable and advantageous the opportunity, that Ministers may not negligently over-over-pass them, but in love and tenderness instruct them according to their severall conditions; Endeavouring the conversion of the ungodly, the strengthening of the weak, and comforting such as need consolation, directing them how to improve their afflictions, and helping them to be sensible of the evil of sin, the negligences and miscarriages of their lives, the vanity of the world, their necessity of a Saviour, the sufficiency of Christ; the certainty and excellency of the Everlasting glory. Exhorting them to repentance and to faith in Christ, and to set their affections on the things above; and (if they are penitent believers) comfortably to hope for the Kingdom which God hath promised to them that love him, committing their souls to their Redeemer, and quietly resting in the will, and love, and promises of God; Resolving if God shall recover them to health, to redeem the time, and live the rest of their lives unto his glory. And being willing, if it be their appointed time, to depart and be with Christ; and they must be exhorted to forgive such as have wronged them, and to be reconciled to those with whom they have been at variance; and to make a pious, just, and charitable disposal of their worldly Estates.

The Order for solemnizing the Burial of the Dead.

IT is agreeable to nature and Religion, that the Buriall of Christians be solemnly and decently performed, as to the cases; Whether the Corps shall be carried first into the Church, that is to be buried in the Church-yard? and whether it shall be buried before the Sermon, Reading, or Prayer, or after, or in the midst of the reading? or whether any Prayer shall be made at the grave, for the living, Let no Christians uncharitably judge one another about these things; let no people keep up groundless usages, that being suspicious, grieve their Minister and offend their brethren. Let no Minister that scruplet the satisfying, of peoples ungrounded desires in such things, be forced to do it against griue his conscience; and let Ministers that doe use these Customes, or Ceremonies, have liberty, when they suspect that the people desire them upon some Error to professe against that Error, and teach the people better.

Whether the Minister come with the company that brings the Corps from the house; or whether he meet them, or receive them at the buriall place, is to be left to his own discretion. But while he is with them, let him gravely discourse of mans mortality, and the usefull truths and duties thence to be inferred: And either at the Grave, or in the Reading-place, or Pulpit, by way of Sermon, according to his discretion. Let him (at least if it be desired) instruct and exhort the people concerning death, and the life to come, and their necessary preparation. Seeing the spectacle of Mortality, and the season of mourning, doe tend to prepare men for a sober considerate entertainment of such instructions, and he may read such Scriptures as may mind them of Death, Resurrection and Eternal life. as 1 Cor. 15, or from vers. 10. to the end: And Job 1. 21. & 19. 25, 26. John 11. 25, 26. & 5. 28, 29. And his Prayer shall be suited to the occasion.

When ever the Rain, Snow or coldness of the season, make it unhealthfull to the Minister or people to stand out of doors, at least then, let the Reading, Exhortation, and Prayers be used within the Church.

Of Extraordinary Daies of Humiliation, and thanksgiving, and Anniversary Festivals.

When great afflictions lye upon the Church, or any special part or members of it, or when any great sins have been committed among them, it is meet that in publick; by fasting & prayer, we humble our selves before the Lord, for the averting of his disdispleasure; and on such occasions it is the Pastors duty to confess his own, and the peoples sins, with Penitence, and tenderness of heart, and by his Doctrine and Exhortation, to Endeavour effectually to bring the People to the sight and sence of their sin, and the deserts of it, and to a firm Resolution of better obedience for the time to come, being importunate with God in Prayer for pardon and renewed grace.

Upon the receipt of great and extraordinary mercies, the Church (having opportunity) is to Assemble for publick Thanksgiving unto God and the Minister to stir up the people to a lively sence of the greatness of those mercies, and joyfully to Celebrate the praises of God, the Authour of them. And it is not unmeet in these dayes to expresse our joy in Feasting and outward signes of Mirth, provided they be used moderately, spiritually, and inoffensively, and not to gratifie our sensual desires, and that we relieve the poor in their necessities (which also on dayes of Humiliation and other Seasons, we must not forget) The occasions of such dayes of Humiliation and Thanksgiving being so various, as cannot be well suited by any standing forms, the Minister is to apply himself to the respective duties, suitable to the particular occasions.

Though it be not unlawfull or unmeet to keep Anniversary Commemoration by Festivals, of some great and notable mercies, to the Church or State, the memory whereof should be transmitted to posterity; nor to give any persons their due honour who have been the Instruments thereof: yet because the Festivals of the Churches Institution now observed, are much abused, and many sober Godly person, Ministers, and others, are unsatisfied of the Lawfulness of the Celebrating them as Holy daies, let the abuse be restrained; and let not the Religious observation of those daies by publick Worship, be forced upon any that are thus unsatisfied, provided they forbear all offensive behaviour thereupon.

Of Prayer and Thanksgiving for Particular Members of the Church.

Besides the Petitions that are put up for all in such distresses, in the Generall Prayer, it is meet that Persons in dangerous sickness, or other great affliction of Body or Mind; and Women that are near the time of Child-bearing, when they desire it, shall be Particularly recommended to God in the Publick Prayers of the Church. Because all the members constitute one body, and must have the same care one for another, as suffering all with one that suffereth, & rejoycing all with one that is honoured. And the effectual fervent prayer of the righteous, especially of the whole Congregation, availeth much with God. But because diseases, distresses, and griefe of mind, are so various that no forms that are Particular can suite them all; And because every Minister should be able to suite his Prayers to such various Necessities of the people: We desire that it may be left to his discretion to pray for such according to their severall Cases, before or after Sermon. But desire that except in case of sudden necessity, they may send in their Bills of request to him the night before, that he may consider of their cases, and may publish only such, and in such Expressions, as in prudence he shall judge meet for the Ears of the Assembly.
 sickness,

In the more ordinary Cases of persons in sickness, danger, and distress, and that are delivered from them; these following Prayers may be used, or such like.

Most mercifull Father, Though our Sin doth find us out, and we are fully afflicted for our Transgressions, yet are we not consumed in thy wrath; but thou punishest us less than our Iniquities do deserve; though thou causest Grief, yet wilt thou have compassion according to the multitude of thy mercies, for thou dost not willingly afflict and grieve the Children of men: Thou revivest the Spirit of the humble, and the heart of the Contrite ones, for thou wilt not contend for ever, neither wilt thou be alwaies wroth, for the Spirit would fall before thee, and the Soul which thou hast made. Look down in tender mercy on the affliction of this thy Servant; O Lord, rebuke him not in thy wrath, neither chasten him in thy hot displeasure. All his desire is before thee, and his groaning is not hid from thee; Have mercy upon him, O Lord, for he is weak. O Lord heal him, whose Bones and Soul is vexed.

In Death there is no Remembrance of thee, in the Grave who shall gibe thee thanks? Remember that we are but Flesh, a Wind that passeth away and cometh not again: wilt thou break a leaf driven to and fro, and wilt thou pursue the dry Rubble? Remember not the Iniquities of his Youth, or his transgressions: look upon his affliction, and his pain, and forgive all his Sins. Though the sorowes of Death do compass him about, yet if it be for thy glory and his good recober him, and let him live and praise thy Name. Rebuke his Sickness, direct unto such means as thou wilt bless. In the time of his trouble we call upon thee, do thou deliver him, and let him glorifie thee; however thou him the Sin that doth offend thee, let him search and try his wayes, and confesse and turn from his Iniquity, and let it be good for him that he was afflicted. Let this be the fruit of it to purge and take away his Sin, That being Chastened of the Lord, he may not be condemned with the World. And though chastisement for the present seemeth not to be joyous, but grievous, yet afterwards let it yield the peaceable fruit of Righteousness to this thy Servant, that is exercised therein. In the mean time, O Lord, be thou his Portion, who art good to the Soul that seeketh thee, and waiteth for thee. Let him patiently and silently bear thy yoke, let him hope and quietly wait for thy Salvation: Considering that thou wilt not cast off for ever, that thy anger is but for a moment, but in thy favour is Life. Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning: and that whom thou lovest, thou Chastenest, and scourgest every Son whom thou receivest; and that if he endure Chastening, thou dealest with him as a Son. If he be remembered, let him devote himself entirely to thy Glory: That when thou hast put off his Sackcloth and mourning, and girded him with gladness, he may speak thy Praise, and gibe thee Thanks. If he receive the Sentence of Death in himself, let it cause him to trust in thee that raised the Dead, knowing that as thou didst raise up the Lord Jesus, thou wilt raise him up also by Jesus: Therefore suffer not his hope to faile: but though his outward Man perish, yet let his inward Man be renewed from day to day: and let him live by Faith, and look at the things which are not seen, even at the exceeding eternal weight of glory, Let him be found in Christ, not having his own righteousness, but that which is of God by faith.strain the Tempter; and deliver thy Servant from

Let thy servant love thee, because thou hast heard his voice and supplication; Let him offer unto thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and pay his vows to the most High, and take the Cup of Salvation and call upon thee all his days: Let him be wholly devoted to thy praise, and glorifie thee in Soul and body, as being Thine, and seasonably depart in peace unto thy glory: through Jesus Christ our Life and Righteousness. A Thanksgiving for the Deliverance of Women in Child-bearing.

WE return thee thanks, Most Gracious God, That thou hast heard our Prayers for this thy hand-maid; and hast been her help in the time of her necessity, and delivered her from her fears and torments: death and life are in thy power, thou killest and thou makest alive, thou bringest down to the grave, and thou bringest up; Thou makest the Warren to keep house, and to be a joyful Mother of Children. We thank thee, that thou hast given thy Servant to see the fruit of her womb, and that thou hast brought her again to thy Holy Assembly, to go with the multitude to thy House, and worship thee with the voice of joy and praise, that she may enter into thy Gates with Thanksgiving, and into thy Court with praise; and we may all be thankfull to thee on her behalfe, and speak good of thy Name; Thou art good, O Lord, to all, and thy tender mercies are over all thy works, thou preservest them that love thee; thou raisest up them that

Of Pastoral Discipline, Publick Confession, Absolution, and Exclusion from the Holy Communion of the Church.

THE Recital of the Curses are said in the Book of Common Prayer, to be instead of the godly Discipline of the Primitive Church, till it can be restored again, which is much to be wished, which is the putting of notorious Sinners

Sinners to open Penitence; His Majesties Declaration concerning Ecclesiastical Affairs, determineth that all publick diligence be used for the Instruction and Reformation of scandalous Offenders, whom the Minister shall not suffer to partake of the Lord's Table, untill they have openly declared themselves to have truly repented and amended their former naughty lives, provided there be place for due Appeals to Superiour Powers.

And the Law of Christ commandeth, if thy Brother trespass against thee, go and tell him his faults between him and thee alone, if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy Brother, but if he will not hear thee, then take to thee one or two more, that in the Mouth of two or three witnesses, every word may be established, and if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the Church, but if he shall neglect to hear the Church, let him be unto thee as an Heathen man, or as a Publican. Math. 18. 15, 16, 17. And it is the Office of the Pastors of the several Congregations, not onely to teach the People in General, and guide them in the Celebration of the publick Worship, but also to oversee them, and watch over each Member of their Flock particularly, to preserve them from Errours, Heresies, Divisions, and other Sins, defending the Truth, confuting Gain-sayers and Seducers instructing the Ignorant, exciting the Negligent, encouraging the Despondent, comforting the Afflicted, confirming the weak, rebuking and admonishing the Disorderly and Scandalous, and directing all according to their needs in the matters of their Salvation, and the People in such needs should have ordinary recourse to them, as the Officers of Christ, for Guidance, and Resolution of their Doubts, and for Assistance in making their Salvation sure; and in proving, maintaining, or restoring the peace of their Consciences, and spiritual Comfort.

If therefore any Member of the Church be a scandalous Sinner, and the Crime be either notorious or fully proved; let the Pastor admonish him, and set before him the particular Command of God which he transgresseth, the Supream Authority of God which he despiseth, the Promises and Mercies which he treadeth under foot, and the Curse and dreadfull Condemnation, which he draweth upon himself, let this be done with great Compassion and tender Love to the Offenders Soul, and with gravity, reverent and serious importunity, as becometh men employed on the behalf of God, for the saving of a Soul, and yet with Judgement, and cautelous Prudence, not taking that for Sin which is no:

no Sin, nor that for a gross and scandalous Sin, which is but an ordinary humane frailty, not dealing as unreverently with a Superiour as with an Inferiour, nor making that publick which should be concealed, nor reproving before others when it should be done more secretly, nor speaking unseasonably to those who through Drink or Passion are incapable of the benefit, nor yet offending by baseness, or the fear of man, or lukewarmness, negligence, or sleighting over great Offences, on the other extrem.

Prudence also requireth them to be cautelous of over-medling, where the Magistrates honour, or concernment, or the Churches unity, or peace, or the reputation of others, or the interest of their Militry requireth them to forbear.

These Cautions observed, If the scandalous Offender continue impenitent, or unreformed, after due admonitions and Patience, let the Pastor, in the Congregation when he is present, rebuke him before all, that the Church may sufficiently disown the Crime, and others may see the odiousness and danger of the Sin. But let this also be with the Love, and Seriousness, and Prudence, before mentioned.

If the Offender in obduracy will not be there, the Pastor may open the Crime before the Congregation; And present or absent (in case he remain impenitent) if the Case will bear so long delay, it is convenient, that the Pastor publicly pray for his conviction and repentance, that he may be saved.

And this he may do one, or two, or three; or more dayes, as the nature of the Case, and Prudence shall direct him.

If during these means for his Recovery (after the Proof of the Crime) there be a Communion of the Church in the Lord's Supper, Let the Pastor require him to forbear, and not suffer him to partake of the Lords Table.

If yet the Offender remain impenitent, let the Pastor openly declare him unmeet for the Communion of the Church, and require him to abstain from it, and require the Church to avoid Communion with him. And let him bind him by the denunciations of the threatnings of God, against the impenitent.

But before this is done, let no necessary Consultation, with other Pastors, or Concurrence of the Church be neglected: And after let there be place for due appeals, and let Ministers consent to give account when they are accused of Mal-administration.

But

But if after private Admonition (while the offence is such , as requireth not publick confession) the Sinner be penitent , let the Minister privately apply to his consolation the promises of the Gospel , with such cautelous prudence, as is most suitable to his Condition.

And if he repent not till after publick admonition, or that the scandal be so great and notorious , as that a publick confession is necessary , let him at a seasonable time appointed by the Pastor, with remorse of Conscience , and true contrition, confess his sin before the Congregation , and heartily lament it , and clear the honour of his Christian profession which he had stained, and crave the Prayers of the Church to God for pardon , and reconciliation through Christ , and also crave the Ministerial Absolution and Restauration to the Communion of the Church , and profess his resolution to do so no more ; but to live in new obedience to God , desiring also their prayers for corroborating and preserving grace.

It is only a credible profession of Repentance, that is to be accepted by the Church.

The forgoing Cautions must be carefully observed in such confessions, that they be not made to the injuring of the Magistrate, or of the Church, or of the reputation of others, or of the life, Estate, or Liberty of the Offender, or to any other shame than is necessary to the manifesting of his Repentance, and the clearing of his Profession, and the righting of any that he hath wronged, and the honour and preservation of the Church.

When he hath made a credible profession of Repentance , It is the Pastors duty, Ministerially to declare him pardoned by Christ, but in conditional terms, (If his Repentance be sincere) And to absolve him from the censure of non-Communion with the Church, if he was under such a censure before his penitence, and to declare him meet for their Communion , and to encourage him to come, and require the Church to entertain him into their Communion with gladness , and not upbraid him with his fall , but rejoyce in his recovery , and endeavour his confirmation and preservation for the time to come : And it is his duty accordingly to admit him to Communion, and theirs to have loving Communion with him : All which the penitent person must beleevingly , lovingly , and joyfully receive . But if any by Notorious perfidiousness , or frequent Covenant breaking have forfeited the credit of their words, or have long continued in the sin which they do confess, so that their forsaking it hath no proof; The Church then must have testimony of the Actual Reformation of such as these, before they may take their professions and promises as credible; Yet here the difference of persons and offences is so great; that this is to be much left to the prudence of Pastors that are present, and acquainted with the persons, and Circumstances of the Case. In the transacting of all this, these following forms, to be varied as the variety of Cases do require, may be made use of.

A Form of Publick Admonition to the Impenitent.

The sin may be named, & aggravated when it is convenient.

AB. you are convicted of gross and scandalous sin, you have been admonished and intreated to repent. The promises of mercies to the Penitent; and the threatnings of God against the Impenitent, have not been concealed from you; we have waited in hope for your repentance, as having compassion on your Soul, and desiring your Salvation; but we must say with grief, you have hitherto disappointed us; We are certain from the word of God, that you must be penitent, if ever you will be pardoned, and that except you repent, you shall everlastingly perish, Luke 13. 3. 5. Acts 5. 31. Luke 12. 47. To acquaint you publickly with this, and yet here to offer you mercy from the Lord, is the next duty laid upon us for your recovery. O blame us not, if knowing the errors of the Lord, we thus passwade you, and are loth to leave you in the power of Satan, and loth to see you cast out into perdition, and that your blood should be required at our hands, as not having discharged our duty to prevent it.

Be it known unto you therefore, that it is the God of Heaven and Earth, the great, the jealous, and the terrible God, whose Laws you have broken, and whose Authority you despise; you refuse his government, who is coming with ten thousands of his Saints, to execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly of their ungodly deeds and Speeches, who hath told us that (evil shall not dwell with him) The Foolish shall not stand in his sight:

He

He hateth all workers of iniquity (Jude 14, 15. Psalm 5. 4, 5.) The ungodly shall not stand in judgment, nor sinners in the Congregation of the Righteous, (Psalm. 15. 6.) God hath not made his Laws in vain. Though the wicked contemn God, and say in their hearts, he will not require it, (Psalm. 10. 13.) Yet their damnation numbereth not, they are reserved to the day of judgement, to be punished (2 Pet. 2, 3, 9.) And he seeth that their day is coming; (Psalm. 37. 13.) If men cut off the lives of those that break their Laws, will God be out-faced by the pride and stubbornness of sinners? He will not; you shall know he will not; He threatneth not in jest. Who hath hardened himself against him and hath prospered? (Job 9. 4.) Are you not as chaffe and stubble? and is not our God a consuming fire? (Psalm. 1. 4. Isa. 5. 24. Heb. 12. 19.) If Briars and Thorns be set against him in battle, will he not go through them, and burn them up together? (Isa. 27. 4.) Can your heart endure, or your hands be strong in the day when God shall deal with you? It is the Lord that hath spoken it, and he will do it. Ezek. 22. 14. What will you do, when you must bear with the pains of Hell from God, that now can scarce endure to be thus openly and plainly warned of it; If we to please you should be silent and betray you, do you think the God of Heaven will fear, or flatter you, or be unjust to please a worm. Do you provoke the Lord to Jealousie, are you stronger than he? (1 Cor. 10. 22.) O man! for your souls sake, let not Satan abuse your understanding, and sin befool you, must you not die? And doeth not Judgment follow, when all secrets shall be opened, and God will no more entreat you to confesse? (Heb. 9. 7. Matth. 10. 26.) Behold the Judge standeth at the door; (Jam. 5. 9.) will sin go then with you for as light a matter as it doth now? Will you then deny it, or will you stand to all the reasonings, or excuses, by which you would now extenuate or cover it? Will you defend it as your friend? and be angry with Ministers and Reprovers as your enemies? Or will you not mourn at last (with weeping and gnashing of teeth) And say; How have I hated Instruction, and my heart despised Reproof? And have not obeyed the voice of my Teachers, nor inclined mine Ear to them that instructed me. (Pro. 5. 11, 12, 13. Mat. 13. 42, 50.) O that you were wise, that you understan this, and that you would consider your latter End, (Deut. 32. 29.) beleeve Gods wrath before you feel it: be convinced by the word and servants of the Lord, before you are confounded by the dreadfulnesse of his Majesty; yet there is hope, but shortly there will be none, if you neglect it; yet if you confesse and forsake your sins, you shall have mercy; but if you cover them, you shall not prosper; (Prov. 28. 13.) And if, being oft reprov'd, you harden your neck, you shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedie; (Pro. 29. 1.) Be not deceived, God is not mocked: whatsoever you sow, that shall you also reap. (Gal. 6. 7.) O man! you know not what it is to deal with an offend'd, and revenging God. Nor what it is to hear Christ say. Depart from me ye workers of Iniquity; I never knew you; Depart from me ye wicked into everlasting fire, (Matth. 7. 23. and 25. 41.) You know not what it is to be shut out of Heaven; and concluded under utter desperation, and in Hell to look back upon this obstinate Impenitence; and rejecting of the mercy that would have saved you; and there to have Conscience telling you for ever, what it is that you have done; Did you not know what this is, could you think a Penitent confessing and forsaking your sin to be a condition too hard for the preventing of such a doleful state? O no! you know not what a case you are casting your immortal soul into. The Lord give you repentance, that you may never know it by experience. To prevent this, is our business with you: We delight not to displease, or shame you. But God hath told us, (That if any do err from the truth, and one convert him, let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way, shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins, Jam. 5. 20.) I do therefore by the Command, and in the name of Jesus Christ, require and beseech you, that you do, without any more delay, confesse your sins, and heartily bewail them; and beg pardon for them, and resolve and promise by the help of God to do so no more, And bless God that you have an Advocate with the Father Jesus Christ the righteous, whose blood wil cleanse you from your sins; if you penitently confesse them, (1 John 1. 7, 9. and 2. 1, 2.) and that mercy may be yet had on so ealie termes. If you had any sense of your sin and misery, or any sense of the dishonour don to God, or of the wrong that you have don to others, &c of the usefulness of your penitent confession, and amendment, to the reparation of all these, you would cast your self in the dust, in shame & greif before the Lord, and before the Church: To day therefore, if you will hear his voice, harden not your heart, lest God forsake you, and give you over unto your own hearts lust, to walk in your own counsels, and resolve in his wrath, you shall never enter into his rest, (Psalm. 95. 8, 12. and 81. 11, 12.) And then God and this Congregation, will be Witnesses that you were warn'd; and your blood will be upon your own head: But if in penitent confession you flee to Christ, and loath your self for your iniquities, and heartily forsake them, I have Authority to promise you free Forgiveness, and that your Iniquity shall not be your Ruine, (Luke 24. 47. Ezek. 18. 30, 31, 32.).

A Form of Confession to be made before the Congregation.

I Do confesse before God, and this Congregation, that I have greatly sinned. * I have offended, and dishonoured God, wronged the Church, and the Souls of others; I have deserved to be forsaken

* Here the sin must be named, and aggravated, when by the Pastor it is judged requisite.

his fault between him and us alone, and if he will not bear us, we shall then take with us, one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three Witnesses, every word may be Established; And if he shall neglect to bear them, that he tell it to the Church, and if he neglect to bear the Church, that he be to us a Heathen Man, and a Publican. Math. 18. 15, 16, 17.] And that we keep no company; If any that is called a Brother, be a Fornicator, or Covetous, or an Idolator, or a Raylor, or a Drunkard, or an Extortioner, with such a one, no not to eat. 1 Cor. 5. 11. And that we withdraw ourselves from every Brother that walketh disorderly, and note him, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed: 2 Thess. 3. 6. 14. According to these Laws of Christ, we have admonished this offending Brother, who hath greatly sinned against God, and grieved and injured the Church, we have earnestly prayed, and patiently waited for his repentance, but we have not prevailed, But after all, he continueth impenitent, and will not be perswaded to confess and forsake his sin: We do therefore, according to these Laws of Christ, Declare him unwelcome for the Communion of the Church, and reject him from it, Requiring him to forbear it, and requiring you to avoid him, and we leave him bound to the Judgment of the Lord unless his true Repentance shall prevent it.

A Form of Absolution, and Reception of the Penitent.

THough you have greatly sinned against the Lord, and against his Church, and your own Soul, yet seeing you humble your self before him, and Penitently flee to Christ for mercie, resolving to do so no more: hear now the glad tidings of Salvation, which I am commanded to declare unto you, 1 John 2. 1, 2. If any man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous, and he is the propitiation for our sins, 1 John 1. 9. If we confesse our sins, he is faithful, to forgive us our sin, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousnesse, Isa. 55. 6. 7. He that covereth his sins shall not prosper, but whose confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy. Gal. 6. 1. Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, restore such a one in the spirit of meekness, considering thy self lest thou also be tempted. According to this word of Grace [ I do loose the bonds here laid upon you, and receive you again into the Communion of the Church] requiring them to receive you, and not upbraid you with your sin: but rejoice in your recovery. * And I do declare to you the pardon of all your sins in the Blood of Christ, if your Repentance be sincere. And I exhort and charge you, that you believingly and thankfully accept this great, unspeakable Mercy, and that you watch more carefully for the time to come, and avoid temptations, and subdue the Flesh, and accept Reproofs, and see that you return not to your vomit, or to wallow again in the mire, when you are washed; but obey the Spirit and keep close to God in the means of your preservation.

A Form of Thanksgiving, or Prayer, for the Restored Penitent.

O Most mercifull Father, We thank thee, that thou hast brought us under so gracious a Covenant, as not only to pardon the sins of our unregenerate state, but also upon our Penitent confession, and return, to cleanse us from all our unrighteousness, and pardon our falls by the blood of Christ, and to restore our souls, and lead us again in the Paths of Righteousness, & command thy servants to receive us. We thank thee that thou hast thus restored this thy Servant, giving him repentance and remission of sin [* and returning him to the Communion of thy Church] We beseech thee comfort him, with the believing Apprehensions of thy forgiveness and reconciliation through Jesus Christ. Restore unto him the joy of thy salvation, & uphold him by thy free spirit; stablish, strengthen, settle him,

Let him watch & stand fast, & sin no more, lest worse befall him. Let him not receive this grace in vain, nor turn it into wantonness, nor continue in sin that grace may abound. But let his old man be crucified with Christ, & the body of sin be destroyed, that henceforth he may no more serve sin, remembering what scurr he had in those things, whercof he is now ashamed, & that the end and wages of sin is death, & let us all take warning by the falls of others, & be not high minded but fear, & let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall. Let us watch and pray that we enter not into temptation, remembering that the flesh is weak, & our Adversary the devil walketh about, seeking whom he may devour. And let none of us hate our Brother in our hearts, but in any wise rebuke our neighbour, & not suffer sin upon him; & confirm us unto the end, that we may be blameless in the Day of our Lord Jesus Christ, to whom with thee, O Father, & thy Holy Spirit, be Kingdome, & Power, & Glory for ever. Let us study to please thee in all things: let thy Law be written in our hearts, and let us delight to do thy Will: let our Faith and Lives be ruled by thy Word, which is able to make us wise unto Salvation; let us love it, search it, and understand it, and meditate in it day and night.

Let us not please our selves or other men against thee, nor be led by the wisdom or desires of the World and flesh, nor regard lying vanities, nor through carelessness, rashness, or presumption offend thee.

As all Nations must be judged by thee; let them be ruled by thy Laws, and not make them void by mens Traditions, nor worship thee in vain, teaching for Doctrine the Commandments of men. But what ever thou commandest, let them take heed to do. Let them add nothing thereto, nor take ought therefrom.

Let us not take thy holy Name in vain, but use it in truth and reverence. Keep us from all Blasphemy, Perjury, Vowphane swearing; from lying before the God of truth, and from contempt and forgetfulness of thy presence; from false, unworthy, unreverent thoughts or speeches of God, and holy things, and from neglecting, or abusing thy holy Word and Worship.

Help us to keep holy thy Day, in remembrance of the blessed work of our Redemption, and reverently to attend thee in Publick Worship; and obediently to receive thy Word, and reverently to call upon thy Name; and to delight our selves in Thanksgiving, and joyful Praises to thy Holiness in the Communion of thy Saints; and let us carefully see that our Households, and all within our gates do serve thee, and not abuse thy holy Day.

Bless us our daily bread, our necessary sustentation, and provide for thy service, and let us use it for thee, and not to satisfy the flesh; Let us depend on thee, and trust thee for it, in the lawfull use of the means; And bless thou our labours, and give us the fruits of the Earth in season, and such temperate weather as tendeth the same.

Bless us and all thy servants from such wants, distresses, griefs, and sicknesses, as will unseasonably take us off thy service, and from untimely death; And teach us to value and redeem our time, and work while it is day.

Keepe us from Gluttony, Drunkenness, and all intemperance; from sloth and idleness, from inordinate desires of pleasures, or abundance, but having Food and Raiment, let us be therewith contented.

If thy abundant mercy, through the sacrifice and merits of thy Son according to thy promise, forgive us all our sins, and save us from thy deserved wrath, and condemnation. Remember not O Lord our offences, nor the offences of our forefathers; but though our Iniquities testify against us, spare us and save us for thy mercy sake. O let not our sin deprive us of thy spirit, or of access unto thee, or Communion with thee, or of thy favour, or comfort, or the light of thy countenance, or of everlasting life.

Cause us to forgive from our hearts the Injuries done against us, as we expect to be forgiven by thee the greatest debt. Keep us from all revengefull desires & attempts. And do thou combat and pardon our enemies, slanderers, oppressors, persecutors, & others that hate and use us wrong.

Keepe us from running upon Temptations, suffer not the temptation by subtlety or importunity to corrupt our Judgments, Wills, Affections, or Conversations. Cause us to maintain a diligent & constant watch over our thoughts and hearts, our senses and appetites, our words and actions; and, as faithful soldiers, by the conduct and strength of the Captain of our Salvation with the whole Armour of God, to resist and overcome the world, the Devil, and the flesh unto the end.

Save us from the temptations of Prosperity, and Adversity, let us not be drawn from thee to sin by the pleasures, profits or honours of the world; Strengthen us for sufferings, let us not forsake thee, or fall in time of trial; help us to deliver ourselves, selves, and take up our Cross and follow Christ, accounting the sufferings of this present time unworthy to be compared with the glory to be revealed.

Deliver us from the Enmity and Rage of Satan and his Instruments, and give not up thy servants, their souls or bodies, their Peace or Liberties, Estates or Names to their malicious Wills, but save us, and preserve us to thy heavenly Kingdom.

We ask all this of thee, O Lord! for thou art the universal King, holy and just to whom it belongeth in righteousness to judge the World, and save thy People: All Power is thine, to execute Wrath upon thine enemies, and to deliver and glorify thy flock, and none is able to resist thee: Let us, and through thee, and to thee are all things, and the Glory shall be thine forever. Amen.

The Church's Praise, For our Redemption, to be used at Discretion.

Our Souls do magnify thee O Lord, our Spirits rejoice in God our Saviour, who rememberd us in our lost Estates, for his mercypendureth forever. By one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin: We kept not the Covenant of God, and refused to walk in his Law; for all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God, and Judgement came upon all men to Condemnation. But blessed be the Lord God of Israel. that hath visited and redeemed his people, and hath raised up a Mighty Salvation for us in the House of his servant David: As he spake by the mouth of his holy Prophets, which have been since the world began. A Virgin hath conceived and brought forth: The Holy Ghost did come upon her, the Power of the Highest did over-

95 shadow her, therefore the holy One that is born of Co. 1. 15 her, is called, The Son of God; his Name is called Jesus, for he saith his people from the r sin:
To us is born a Savior, which is Christ the Lord;
He is the Image of the Invisible God, the first-born of every Creature; for by him all things are 167 created that are in Heaven and in Earth, Visible and Invisible, whether Thrones or Dominions, 2 Cor. 1. 24 or Principalities or Powers, all things were created by him and for him; and he is before all things, and by him all things do consist. He is the Power of God, and the Wisdom of God, the true Light that lighteth every man that cometh into the World. The Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, and men beheld his glory, as the glory of Isa. 1. 9, 14 the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth; for it pleased the Father, that in him
Co. 1. 19 should all fulness dwell. When the fulness of time Gal. 4. 4 was come, God sent his Son, made of a woman, made under the Law, to redeem them that are under the Law. This is the beloved Son in whom Mat. 17. 5 the Father is well-pleased. For such a High Priest Heb. 7. 26 became us, who is Holy, Harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners; he did no sin, neither was there any guile found in his mouth; when he was rebiled 1 Pet. 2. 22, he rebiled not again, leaving us an Example; 23, 24 who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the Tree; for God laid on him the Iniquity of us all, and by his stripes we are healed. When we 1 Jo. 5. 3, 6 were without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly, the Just for the unjust. In this was manifest the love of God towards us, that God sent his

his onely begotten Son into the world, that we might live by him. Forasmuch as the children were partakers of flesh and blood, he himself likewise took part with them, that he might destroy through death, him that had the power of death, that is, the Devil, and might deliver them, who through feare of death were all their life time subject to bondage, having spoiled Principalityes and Powers, he made shew of them openly, triumphing over them in his Cross. He was buried, and rose again the third day, according to the Scriptures. For God raised him, having loosed the paines of death, because it was not possible that he should be holden of it; he hath abolished death, and brought Life and Immortality to light by the Gospel. O Death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

All Power is given him in Heaven and Earth; when he ascended upon High, he led Captivity Captive, and gave gifts to men: And he gave some Apostles, and some Prophets, and some Evangelists, and some Pastors, and some Teachers, for the perfecting of the Saints, for the Work of the Ministry, for the edifying of the Body of Christ, till we all come in the unity of the Faith, or the knowledge of the Son of God, to a perfect man; he is set at Gods right hand in the Celestialls, far above all Principallities, and Powers, and Mightes, and Dominion, and every Name that is named, not onely in this World, but in that to come: God hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be Head over all things, to the Church, which is his Body, the fullness of him that filleth all in all.

1 Cor. 6. 11

Without controverſie, great is the Myſterie of godlineſs, God manifeſted in the fleſh, juſtified in the Spirit, ſeen of Angels, preached to the Gentiles, believed on in the world, and received up into glory. This is the Record that God hath given us Eternal life, and this life is in his Son: he that hath the Son hath life, and he that hath not the Son, hath not life. He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not: He came to his own, and his own received him not: This is the condemnation that light is come into the world, and men love darkneſs rather then light, becauſe their Deeds are evil. But as many as receive him, to them gives he power to become the Sons of God, even to them that believe in his Name: There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Chriſt Jeſus, who walk not after the fleſh, but after the Spirit. He forgetteth our iniquities, and will remember our ſins no more, who ſhall lay any thing to the charge of God's Elect? It is God that juſtifieth, who is he that condemneth? It is Chriſt that died; Yea rather, that is riſen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who alſo maketh interceſſion for us: who gave himſelf for us, that he might redeem us from all Iniquity, and purifie to himſelf a peculiar people, zealous of good works. If any man have not the Spirit of Chriſt, the ſame is none of his. He that nameth the Name of Chriſt, muſt depart from iniquity. If we regard iniquity in our hearts, God will not hear our Prayers. But we are waſhed, we are ſanctified, we are juſtified, fied in the Name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God: Not by works of Righteousness which we have done, but according to his Mercy he saved us by the washing of Regeneration, and renewing of the Holy ghost. And being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom also we have access by faith into his grace, wherein we stand, and reioice in hope of the glory of God: And hope maketh not ashamed, because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy ghost, which is given to us for if when we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life. He that spared not his own Son, but gave him up for us All, how shall he not with him also, freely give us all things? He that is gone to prepare a place for us, will come again and receive us to himself, that where he is, there we may be also. It is his will that they that the father hath given him, be with him where he is, that they may behold the glory that is given him. Because he loveth, we shall live also: for we are dead, and our life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ who is our life shall appear, then shall we also appear with him in glory; when he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that do believe. Then shall man discern between the Righteous and the wicked; between those that serve God, and those that serve him not. Then shall the Righteous shine forth as the Sun, in the Kingdom of their Father. He that overcometh, shall inherit all things, things. He shall enter into the joy of his Lord. He shall be a Pillar in the Temple of God, and shall go out no more. Christ will grant him to sit with him in his Throne, even as he overcame, and is set down with his Father in his Throne: he will rejoice over us with joy, he will rest in his love: Even in the holy City, the New Jerusalem, prepared as a Bride adorned for her Husband, where the Tabernacle of God will be with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, their God, and shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying, nor pains, for the former things are passed away. And the City needeth not the Sun or the Moon to shine in it, for the glory of God doth lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof. The Throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it, and his Servants shall serve him, and shall see his face, who is the Blessed and only Potentate, the King of Kings, and Lord of Lords: Of whom Through him, and To him are all things: To him be glory for ever, Amen.
